

Officers of Syrian Army Try to Break Away From Egypt

Fight Continues After Talks For Agreement Break Down

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Army officers in Syria rebelled today in an apparent attempt to break out of President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

Late this afternoon they called off a negotiated truce and declared they were continuing their fight against tyranny.

Damascus Radio, which announced the before-dawn mutiny, said Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer, Egyptian commander in chief of U.A.R. forces and chief overseer of the Syrian region, had "broken his promise" to meet the rebel demands.

The broadcast said a previous communique, which indicated a negotiated settlement was being worked out, therefore was cancelled.

The radio said Marshal Amer was allowed to leave Syria and return by plane to Cairo.

A curfew was ordered in the Syrian capital.

Nasser in Cairo called the revolt more serious than the British-French-Israeli invasion of 1956 and ordered the 15,000 well-armed Egyptians in the army in Syria to crush the uprising.

Country Divided
Radio reports heard in Beirut indicated Syria was divided — with the northern half remaining loyal to Nasser.

Telephone service to Damascus was cut and reporters attempting to cross the border at several points were turned back.

Cairo newscasts ignored the communique, however, leaving in doubt whether anyone had yet gained a victory.

Fighting was reported to have

Amer

taken place in Damascus' streets. Telephone communications with Damascus were cut immediately after the revolt broke out, and gates clanged shut at the Lebanese-Syrian border.

The revolt broke out only two days after Abdul Hamid Serraj, a former Syrian intelligence chief with strongman ambitions, broke with Nasser and returned to Damascus.

Rusk and Home Cancel Travel Plans to Stay In Touch Over Berlin

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home both canceled travel plans today to keep in close touch with each other on the developing crisis in Soviet-Western relations over Berlin and the United Nations.

A spokesman for Rusk reported that he had decided against a scheduled trip to Washington early today; it would have kept him away from New York until Friday morning. A British spokesman said Home had decided to delay his return to Britain. He had planned to go Friday morning. He now expects to stay here until Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Rusk and Home had breakfast together. They may meet again tonight.

Nixon in California Race; Won't Run for Presidency

Former Vice President and Mrs. Richard Nixon chat with newsmen at a reception following his announcement in Los Angeles Wednesday night that he will run for governor of California. Nixon ruled himself out of the 1964 presidential contest.

Diplomatic Luncheon

Good Food, Lots of Polite Talk Prevail at Meetings

BY SAUL PETT

NEW YORK (AP)—What is a diplomatic luncheon like in the cold war?

It is four hours long. It is half small talk, half big talk and half of the second half is taken up with translation.

The food is good, the wine chilled to perfection and everyone is well-mannered and polite. The tone of their conversation never reflects the fact that both countries involved have rockets with nuclear warheads aimed at each other.

Keep Their Tempers
A chilly breeze fluttered the flags of five nations—the United States, Sweden, Haiti, Canada and Ireland. Those are the countries of the other victims of the plane crash that took Hammarskjold's life.

A state funeral for Hammarskjold will be held Friday at the ancient university of Uppsala.

2 Killed, Over 40 Hurt in Blast at East Chicago, Ind.
EAST CHICAGO, Ind. (AP) — Two persons were killed and more than 40 were injured, some seriously, in an explosion which shook the U.S. Reduction Co. plant today.

The dead were George Battle, 43, East Chicago, who died in St. Catherine's Hospital, and Abraham Smith, Gary, whose body was found in the wreckage.

The hospital reported that 43 men were brought there. Nine, including two in serious condition, were admitted as patients. Thirty-three others were treated and either released or kept temporarily for observation.

Howard Estabrook, vice president of the firm, said as many as 100 men could have been in or near the plant when the explosion occurred. He said it happened at 7:10 a.m. when shifts were changing, and 50 men were leaving and 50 more arriving.

Fire Kills Eight of Ontario Family

PORT DOVER, Ont. (AP) — Eight members of a family — the father, mother and six children — died early today in their blazing home near this Lake Erie community.

The only occupant of the house to escape was a 16-year-old daughter who was taken to hospital in serious condition.

Dead are Joseph Rosewell, 51; his wife Pauline, 41; Robert, 20; Shirley, 13; Joan, 11; Ella, 9; Joseph Jr., 4; and Terry Allan, 4 months.

A 16-year-old daughter, Mary, escaped but is in serious condition from burns. The fire leveled the 1½-story frame house.

8-Point Plan Presented by Soviet Union

Proposals Aim to Counter Program Of U. S. President

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union sought today to counter President Kennedy's peace appeal with an eight-point program billed as a cure for international tensions.

The Soviet proposals—mainly a restatement of earlier ones put out by the Kremlin—were submitted to the U.N. Wednesday night with two other memoranda dealing with the nuclear test issue and colonialism.

The eight-point plan, promised by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's policy when he

Ask Renewal of Test Ban Talks

UNITED STATES (AP) — The United States and Britain called on the U.N. General Assembly today to put pressure on Russia to resume negotiations for a nuclear weapons test ban "under effective controls" to prevent cheating.

The two powers proposed to the U.N. a resolution declaring that the three-year-old test ban negotiations which were broken off Sept. 9 should be renewed "at the earliest possible time a treaty on the cessation of nuclear and thermonuclear tests."

The move was designed in part to try to get around an Indian proposal calling for a treaty by the U.S., Britain and France to an uninspected moratorium.

At the Soviet mission, Gromyko Clowning for cameramen, Gromyko held up three fingers to a Cadillac limousine. He elbowed ward Stevenson, symbolizing the Soviet's troika plan for the U.N.

"Three of a kind are only good in a poker game," said Stevenson. "Then how about three vodka-kas?" said Gromyko.

"I'll take one," said Stevenson.

In diplomatic luncheon circles, this is considered boffo humor. Much better than the big chuckle of last week's American lunch for the Soviets wherein it was discovered that Gromyko and Rusk had similar suits.

Gromyko led his guests into a high-ceilinged dining room, where the silverware and china sparkled but the landscape oil paintings on the walls had an inspirational quality usually seen only in chain hotels.

Sit At Round Table
The participants were seated around a round table, places for 14, each including four glasses for water, vodka, white wine, red wine and cognac. For openers the diplomats ate smoked salmon, black caviar, tomatoes and cucumbers.

Thinking of the table as a clock, this was the seating arrangement: Gromyko, the host, at 12 o'clock; Charles E. Boyle, U.S. special assistant secretary of state, at 1; Valerian A. Zorin, chief Soviet U.N. delegate, at 6.

Bitter Campaign Between Him and Brown Indicated In Governorship Contest

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's decision to run for governor of California in 1962 — and not seek the presidency in 1964 — provided all the makings today for a slambang campaign.

The 48-year-old Republican who just missed the White House last year set a militant tone in his long-awaited announcement last night, but so did his opponents, both Democratic and Republican.

Nixon sized up Democratic Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown as "that amiable but bungling man." He promised a campaign that would "beat Pat Brown to a pulp."

"The government, that state house in Sacramento is in a mess and somebody has to clean it up," he told a televised news conference.

Stung by a question on his personal finances, Nixon said he had been threatened and warned that "every dead cat and every old story would be thrown up and used against me."

"Let me just say that nobody is going to frighten me. Nobody is going to drive me out of this contest."

Accepting Nixon's challenge, Brown declared his candidacy would galvanize majority Democrats into "a fighting crusade." President Richard M. Nixon as a potential candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1964.

Of the possibility that Nixon's statement last night withdrawing from presidential competition had left Rockefeller a leading announcement "means simply that the governor said: 'I really don't agree.'"

He said he would not make his own intentions regarding the GOP presidential nomination known until after his bid for reelection in New York state next year.

Rockefeller commented at a news conference. Most of the discussion concerned Nixon's announcement last night that he would run for governor of California next year and would not seek the presidency in 1964.

Could be Drafted
Rockefeller said: "He would not jump to a conclusion Nixon's statement that he would not run in 1964 had effectively eliminated the vice presidential from consideration. A draft, the governor said, 'will always be a possibility.'"

The governor did not feel himself under any moral compunction to pledge to serve four years as governor if reelected, as Nixon did.

"I don't want to be committed," Rockefeller said. "He will campaign on behalf of Nixon in the California gubernatorial race next year if Nixon asks him to."

Rockefeller's own campaign for re-election is proceeding satisfactorily, he said.

He still considered Nixon the titular leader of the national Republican party because he was the most recent presidential nominee, but former President Eisenhower, congressional leaders and other Republicans remain the top spokesmen.

No Rift Seen in Relations Between Red China, Russia

Intelligence Chief in Formosa Discounts Rumor of Any Break

BY JOHN B. McDERMOTT
Chicago Daily News Service

TAIPEI, Formosa — Discount just isn't so, much as he wishes reports of a major rift between Red China and Moscow.

The top intelligence expert of Nationalist China frankly says it were. Chen Chien Chung, himself a former communist and now the head of the violently anti-communist Kuomintang's intelligence agency, said in an interview that Moscow still calls the shots in Red China and throughout the Communist world.

"There is no basic split between Moscow and Peiping," he declared. "Yes, there are some political differences — but Red China takes orders from Moscow."

Relations Strained

Other sources here in Taipei, headquarters of President Chiang Kai-Shek's Free China government, have noted a strained relationship between the two big powers of the Communist world. This has stemmed from Russia's interference with the Red party activities on the China mainland, a fact which has aroused resentment among party leaders and to a lesser degree among the rank and file.

But at the moment, the Red Chinese leaders — especially Mao Tse-tung, the party chairman — are more concerned with resolving their domestic problems than with their long-range political ambitions.

The communists have proven failures. Crop production is way off and the millions who inhabit the mainland are on a semi-starvation diet. Reports from inside Red China indicate the average consumption per individual is about 600 calories a day.

Power Struggle?

Chen sees a power struggle developing among a half dozen individuals, members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, should Mao die or be liquidated.

Among these would be Liu Shao-chi, Chou En-lai, Chu Teh, Lin Biao, all vice chairmen, and Teng Hsiao-ping, general secretary.

Chou En-lai has been mentioned most often by the foreign press as possible successor to Mao. He is now premier and head of the government.

Liu Shao-chi is chairman of the People's Republic of China and as such actually controls the red government. Russia's Nikita Khrushchev has indicated he approves of Liu.

If the power struggle developed between these two, Liu is a Moscow-trained theorist. That is another significant edge.

Moving Up

Little known and a manipulator behind the scenes is Teng Hsiao-ping. He has been moving rapidly in the party ranks, has a Moscow education and is believed to be the rising star of the Chinese red organization.

Informed observers believe Teng is a man to keep an eye on. Chen said reports from Free Chinese intelligence agents plus his own analysis of the situation indicate that Mao tried subtly to grab the world Communist party leadership away from Khrushchev — or to ease out from under Moscow's wing — but was slapped down.

Without taking direct action, but nevertheless by decisive moves, Khrushchev has put Mao in his place as head of a red satellite organization.

Examples Seen

Examples of this have been Russia's signing of a peace treaty with North Korea without saying anything to Peiping while the negotiations were taking place. Embarrassed Peiping had to follow up with a treaty of its own afterward.

This year, when Red China celebrated its 40th anniversary of the Communist party, Moscow sent a five-man delegation of secondary officials to participate. In sharp contrast, they sent their top officials to Outer Mongolia for a 14th anniversary celebration of that puppet state.

In recapitulation, Chen emphasized these two points: Don't rely on a Peiping-Moscow split. It doesn't exist.

Khrushchev has won the power struggle with Mao. Peiping may be reluctant, but it will continue to take its orders from Moscow.

Don't Go Overboard on Hospitality, Officials in Hungary Warned
Chicago Daily News Foreign Service

MUNICH, Germany — Hungarian collective farmers are being told that while hospitality is an admirable national tradition, it should not be carried too far — especially at the farm's expense.

The newspaper Magyar Nemzet, published by the communist-run Patriotic People's Front, complained recently about two collective farm officials — the chairman and the agronomist — who traveled to Budapest to buy machinery needed for the farm.

"They returned home with receipts from the most expensive hotel and for a 200 forint ($9 at the tourist rate) dinner," it said.

Red Press Gives Tongue-in-Cheek Advice to Buyers

Chicago Daily News Foreign Service

MUNICH, Germany — The Polish press is conducting a campaign against the primitive sales techniques of state enterprises. It is also strongly critical of bad designs and the chronic shortage of spare parts which afflicts almost every king of machine or appliance, according to Radio Free Europe.

With tongue in cheek the leading communist weekly Polityka suggests these advertising blurbs:

—For a furniture store: "Our furniture is disgusting — but do you intend to sleep on the floor for 10 years waiting for new designs?"

—For a car display shop: "Visit the Motozbyt store at once! You won't find spare parts, but we shall tell you which private workshop you can have them made in."

Fight for Power On in Germany

Adenauer Needs Coalition to Form New Government

BY DAVID NICHOL
Chicago Daily News Service

BONN, SEPT. 28 — The backstage areas where Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is fighting for his political life are populated these days with strange and fearsome pre-season Halloween goblins.

Everyone in West Germany's political arena seems to be trying to frighten everyone else with dark visions of the future if this or that event is permitted to happen. By and large it must be said they seem to be succeeding.

The most persuasive of these prospects so far is that of a Germany without the guiding authority and prestige of the 85-year-old leader, who lost his parliamentary majority in the federal elections Sept. 17.

So skillfully has Adenauer twined the political nerves that his chances of emerging at the head of a new German government are increasing steadily. By the same token the prospects of his would-be successor, Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard, are plummeting.

Focused on Mende
Most of the psychological heat has been focused on Erich Mende, the 44-year-old head of the Free Democratic Party who must be feeling more exposed now than when he won the Wehrmacht's highest decoration for bravery as an infantry major on the eastern front.

Mende's party with 66 seats holds the balance of power in the new Bundestag which meets Oct. 17. So far Mende has insisted that Adenauer must go as the price for any coalition government.

The newly elected deputies of Adenauer's Christian Democratic Party met yesterday for the first time and unanimously endorsed the chancellor for a fourth term.

Gave Support
Erhard was among those who gave his support.

Almost all agreed they would prefer a coalition with Mende's party but were quite prepared if necessary to join Adenauer's traditional opponents, the Social Democrats, to remain in power.

This in itself is calculated to alarm many of Mende's influential supporters, who are middle-

Rosemary Clooney Quits, Belafonte Ill in Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. found itself almost without a program today for the premiere of its Telephone Hour Friday.

Singing star Rosemary Clooney quit the show after the sponsor and show producer insisted that she eliminate her biggest number, "If Love Were All," because of its possible "personal connotations."

Miss Clooney recently broke up with her husband of eight years, Jose Ferrer, father of her five children.

This came a few hours after her costar, Harry Belafonte, was hospitalized for a respiratory infection and it was decided to substitute a taped Belafonte segment originally used in 1959.

Producer Barry Wood signed singer Dorothy Collins, Eddie Condon and his "Jazz Combo" and the Metropolitan Opera stars Richard Tucker and Anna Moffo as short-order replacements for Miss Clooney.

The New City Wage Scale

The wage scales for Appleton city workers that will go into effect Jan. 1 probably make them more competitive with local industry and business than they have ever been.

That's good. City workers shouldn't have to take a back seat to anyone. They are entitled to as good pay as anyone else. They incur the same cost of living expenses as other workers. They should have as high a standard of living.

By the same token, however, the city now has an increased responsibility to recruit the best quality of workers. The city has a right to expect top performance for top pay, and a full day's work.

The new state - proposed pay plan, adopted by the council last week, is going to cost the city $60,000 next year. Most workers will get raises. The lowest paid of all common labor, will have a minimum of $2.06 an hour.

The council is to be complimented on re-establishing a merit system for pay hikes. Incentive is often the difference between a poor worker and a good worker. A system of automatic annual raises usually means that the clock-watchers ride the coattails of the more ambitious.

There was a time when city workers in many communities were poorly paid, and sometimes looked down upon as a class of people with few capabilities, coupled with laziness.

In some cases that may have been true. No city can pay low wages and expect to attract top quality personnel.

The mental picture of the lazy government laborer probably reached its height during the Works Projects Administration (WPA) days of the 1930's, when cartoons appeared showing a man in overalls leaning on his shovel, and WPA was rewritten to mean "We Poke Along."

But since that time government operations have become highly technical, and skilled workers are needed in almost every department.

There is very little pick and shovel work any more. Cities buy the same kind of heavy equipment used by construction companies.

In local government offices, clerical help has to be skilled and trained in operating all kinds of complicated machinery. (The Appleton city clerk's office just got a new $19,000 bookkeeping machine that looks like a junior Univac.)

When government invests money in that kind of equipment it needs competent employees to handle it. The only way to get such people is to pay the price, granted that government work many times carries with it a good deal more job security than some other jobs.

The City of Appleton today is a $7 1/2 million a year business. To expect it to be operated with cheap help is unwise. There is too big an investment at stake.

When council committees which have jurisdiction over various city departments hire new workers, they do the best they can to screen applicants. Committees investigate past work records and possible police records. They call in for personal interviews those who pass the preliminary screening.

Now that city workers' wages are going to become more competitive, that screening process should become correspondingly more thorough. We hope it does.

A New Source of Protein

Prof. William D. Gray of Ohio State University believes the world will have some trouble producing enough protein to feed its growing population unless it finds a more efficient method than feeding corn to steers.

Gray says that a steer may consume 60 bushels of corn containing 262 pounds of protein and yet have only 72 pounds of protein in its meat. He thinks it would be better to use the 60 bushels of corn including its 262 pounds of protein and more than a ton of carbohydrate to grow fungus. This could be done by mixing the carbohydrate with nitrogen chemical, he says. In the fungus growth, the 60 bushels of corn would produce in only four days 550 pounds of protein in the fungus.

Fungus is a group of plants including mold, mildew, rusts, smuts, and puffballs. The fungi range from the microscopic cells of the yeast plant to the complicated form of the mushroom.

But when the protein has been produced in the fungi what is to be done with it? Gray thinks it can be made into a palatable food for humans with perhaps less seasoning than is placed on the hotdog or the hamburger. But if the people do not take to it, it still can be used as a high protein feed for cattle. Gray, who has been feeding fungus plants to mice and occasionally tasting the product himself, says that some of it has a nutty flavor. Some is tasteless. Some tastes like dried blackstrap molasses. In his experiments, he discovered that the mice gained weight on a diet of some fungi. The best fungi, he said, contains about 35 per cent protein which is about the same as dried chipped beef. Chipped beef is rated as the highest protein-containing meat.

He says that even Americans, who have one of the better diets in the world, receive only 75 per cent of the protein they need. But to keep up with that diet in the face of the growing population, the United States will need to increase its cattle herds by 10 million head in the next 10 years. That would put a severe tax on the grazing land but Gray believes if we were to use the large amount of grain we have in storage to produce the high protein feed through the growth of fungi, we probably could produce all the cattle we need. Obviously a more economical plan would be to consume the fungi directly.

What Makes a Hurricane?

As Carla, Debbie and Esther whirled their fractious ways across wild waters and devastated land, the mystery of why hurricanes rise remained. But meteorologists, helped now by Tiros III, are peering deeper and deeper into the tremendous storms.

Four meteorological conditions of pressure, moist easterly winds, disturbances and situations in the mid-latitudes as well as the tropics where the storms are born must exist for a hurricane to develop. But the catalyst, the spark that brings the monsters to raging life, still is a mystery. Sometimes all the required conditions exist and no hurricane rises and the scientists have not yet discovered why.

Since 1955 when planes began to fly into the eye of the hurricane to try to find out what made them tick, meteorologists have known that the whirling clouds are actually spiral bands of clouds about twenty miles apart. There is a tremendous funnel movement that sucks up water vapor which later is dropped in torrential rains. Ordinary hurricanes cover about 500 miles with a quiet eye in the middle of about sixty miles across. There is enough energy in one day's supply of wind in an average hurricane to supply the entire United States with electrical power for a month.

Photographs taken by the Tiros III satellite reveal rotating masses of air twenty to fifty miles in diameter in tropical regions. Scientists are speculating whether these are the embryos of new hurricanes, or the impetus that brings them to life. If they succeed in finding out what actually makes a hurricane begin its fantastic growth to destruction or come to recognize a hurricane in its infancy, they can begin to make headway toward knocking them out before they get too big or leading them astray.

Russ Strike at Western Markets With Flood of Cheap Soviet Oil

Among the many and varied weapons used by Khrushchev in his efforts to disrupt the Western world's economy is an all-out drive to flood the West's markets with cheap Soviet oil.

To accomplish this Russia has stepped up oil production by drilling to greater depths in the oil-rich Baku region, and by drilling in a new field in the Baku-Volga area. Plans call for doubling oil production in Russia and the satellite nations by 1965.

But there will continue to be tight controls on the use of oil products by the people of Russia and her satellites.

New pipelines are being built from the oil fields to the Caspian, Black and Baltic seas, as well as eastward to Mongolia and China. Further, Soviet tankers are being built in shipyards throughout the world. All this is part of a plan to double oil exports by 1970.

And, as usual, the Communists have developed a scheme to give themselves an advantage over competitors.

This is evident in a deal the Soviets have made with Italy. They will sell Italy crude oil at $1 per barrel. This compares with the Soviet price to satellite nations of $3.02 per barrel and the free world market price of $2.25.

The satellites, being a captive market, must pay the $3.02-77 cents over the free market price. And that enables Russia to sell to Italy at $1.25 per barrel under the free world price.

Comment on this deal by the U.S. Interior Department is: this type of economic interdependence will tend toward political stability.

Now just how can any such slimy deal, where a captive nation is poised to enable the masters to undercut competitors in an outside market, ever tend toward anything but disruption of world trade? What result can be expected other than a drastic cutback in free world oil production, with inevitable unemployment in the industry and heavy loss to oil producers and less taxes collected by the U.S. government?

The whole thing is just one more example of a gangster among nations walking over the rights of all for its own selfish ends. It is one more example of the utter lack of morals, ethics or common decency in the Communist philosophy.

And it is one more example of the short-sightedness and ineptitude of entirely too many people in our own national government.

U. S. Can't Survive if It Becomes 'Mere Satellite of United Nations'

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Putting "Country before party" is an old cliché that has been worn threadbare by politicians for many generations. Practically every candidate has said it, and few candidates of either party have meant it.

The time has come now, however, when those in high places are going to be forced to repeat it over and over again — and mean it every time they say it. Otherwise they are going to wear the stigma of having presided at the last rites of this great country of ours. Even those that have beat the drums for the United Nations since its early beginnings now are beginning to wonder.

We have heard a lot about coexistence between Capitalism and Communism. The coexistence we should be worrying about now is, whether or not there can be coexistence between the United States and the United Nations. We cannot survive as a country if we become a mere satellite of the United Nations, out-voted by the Communist-dominated bloc. When a country with less than one million people has as much say concerning our affairs as our country of 180 million highly civilized people, we can no longer claim either our dignity or our individuality as a nation.

What shall we celebrate when United Nations Week comes around again Oct. 24?

About Stores, Sunday Opening

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Much has been said of late, about stores and drugstores keeping open on Sundays. This is how I feel about this.

After attending church on Sunday morning, we drive about our fair city and the neighboring cities. On passing taverns, there are many cars parked near each one. I would much rather have my husband go to the supermarket with me, than spending his Sunday mornings in a tavern. Nothing has ever been said about that.

As for the clerks working on Sundays, there are many who are doing this. It's extra work, yes, but in the summer time, churches of all denominations thrive on their Sunday picnics. The women who prepare the meal which is served, work much harder, but because that money goes to the church, that work seems O.K. Why, I would like to know? I've known women who worked at these picnics, who needed Monday to rest, as they worked so hard. To me work is work no matter how it is done for or by whom. Can some one tell me different?

Go into a supermarket on a Sunday afternoon, and see the family groups, doing their shopping leisurely. No hard work connected with that job. Just good, clear thinking. What's wrong with that?

I believe in keeping Sunday holy, but something to keep one a little occupied sure don't seem wrong to me.

Maybe someone can tell me where I am wrong but with down to earth reasons. I'd welcome that. This way is rather confusing. One reason contradicts the other.

Writer Differs With Wyngaard

Editor Post-Crescent:

John Wyngaard wrote an article in the Post-Crescent entitled, "Two Houses of Legislature Assure Careful Lawmaking." He began by saying a 2-house legislature is an assurance of careful, responsible and deliberate government. That is false. Mr. Wyngaard said hundreds of bills pass thru one house, but are ignored in the second house. How come the members of the second house are ignoring all of those bills? John Wyngaard said an assemblyman confessed that he felt ashamed and embarrassed, because there was a bill that he had to pass thru his house. What was the assemblyman so ashamed and embarrassed about? The assemblyman said he knew that his bill would be defeated in the senate. How come that was going to happen?

Mr. Wyngaard said this assemblyman wanted the people to know that he had not willingly backed a bad bill. What does this assemblyman mean by that? John Wyngaard said these situations are numerous enough to suggest the problems that would exist without a safety valve in the form of a second house. That is false. The second house is not a safety valve. Mr. Wyngaard said a lobbyist can push an unwise bill thru one house, but is stopped in the second house. That is partly true. Some lobbyists can push an unwise bill thru both houses.

John Wyngaard closed by saying he shudders at what undesirable consequences might result with only one house. Undesirable consequences result

Looking Backward

Old Story of Similar Uniforms

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Motor for Sept. 26, 1861.

At the battle near Springfield, Mo., Capt. Clayton of the First Kansas Volunteers became separated with his company from the rest of the regiment. They were approached by a regiment of the Iowa First.

Capt. Clayton aligned his men along with the regiment, the latter apparently being as much mistaken as our boys. Just as he had completed the alignment, Capt. Clayton discovered a small red stripe cloth on the shoulders of all the privates, and he knew at once he and his men were among the enemy.

With great coolness, he gave the order, "Right oblique, march; you are crowding too much on this regiment."

The order was obeyed, and by this maneuver the company placed at least 50 yards between itself and the rebels. When the adjutant of the latter rode up, Clayton did not give him time to speak. He said, "What regiment is that?" and received the answer, "Fifth, Missouri Volunteers fighting on the side of Jackson."

Clayton at once seized the adjutant, threw him to the ground, threatening to kill him unless he gave orders to his own regiment not to fire on the Kansans. But the rebel was "game" and instead of doing what was requested, gave orders for fire to be opened.

As his men did so, the adjutant was killed by a bullet from the captain's revolver. The company succeeded in getting back to its own lines with a loss of three or four men.

The Bank of France raised its discount rate from 3 to 5 per cent in a drastic measure to dam the outward flow of French gold reserves.

Japanese officials, backed by armed marines patrolling a large area under martial law, rejected curli the Chinese protests against invasion of the Chinese settlement and warned the entire city of Shanghai to keep its head cool.

Mrs. Zella Laird, Appleton, was elected president of the Rebekah Three Links Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Ada Blake.

Edward Weismiller, Appleton, was named to the staff of the Royal Purple, junior edited yearbook of Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa, and was to be an editorial assistant.

Elaine Buesing and Ralph Van Handel, both of Appleton, were named as flag raisers at the Appleton High School.

Democratic Party Organization Should Benefit by Dispute

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The awkward and very likely embarrassing public settlement of the dispute between Pat Lucey and Gaylord Nelson about who is who in the top - side of the Wisconsin Democratic party may serve to establish a precedent in party management.

Wyngaard

Chairman Lucey, in his own almost too eager renunciation of rank, said that "in every state of the nation," the governor is the top political commander of his party within the state and the party chairman serves as his agent, spokesman and minister.

Whatever the situation in other states, and this reporter doesn't profess to know expertly, it has not been so clearly established in Wisconsin until now, nor is it yet clearly established in the counter-part Republican party activity here.

There have been Republican chairman in fairly recent times, indeed, who regarded governors of their label as merely temporary public servants and not by any means the authoritative voices of the party, either in belief or in tactics. Thomas E. Coleman, who led the Republican organization of the state in its most prosperous years, would have scoffed at any such notion, although he would not have indulged in a public dispute in the event of some difference of view with a man temporarily established in the executive department.

LOGICAL

It is a logical thesis, nevertheless, if only because the governorship is the most powerful office in Wisconsin public life and a governor of reasonable competence who is resolved with a 2-house legislature when the voters do not choose men of moral character and ability. No undesirable consequences result with a 1-house legislature, when the voters choose men of moral character and ability. The taxpayers have to pay salaries to twice as many members, when there are two houses in the legislature instead of one. A 2-house legislature costs the taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars a year more than a 1-house legislature. If the voters do not choose men of moral principle and intelligence, a 2-house legislature will give us poor legislation and poor government. If the voters choose men of moral principle and intelligence, a 1-house legislature will give us good legislation and good government. We should have a 1-house legislature.

Ralph Barnes, Jr.
N. Park Ave., Neenah

to get rid of a party chairman probably can do so in one way or another.

If the Lucey-Nelson quarrel had continued, for example, whatever the outcome of a chairmanship contest at the convention, Lucey's position would inevitably have been undermined and eventually rendered impotent.

A party chairman who is known to be persona non grata in the executive department, who cannot get appointments for his friends there, who is disregarded on state office appointments, on legislation, on the thousand and one routine but yet important decisions involving individuals and politicians, soon will be rejected by his own followers, however loyal they were at the beginning. The business of politics is power. The politician who is losing power because of the deterioration of the position of an associate must change positions in self defense.

What made Lucey's position in the brief public dispute with Nelson stronger than in ordinary situations was his relationship with President Kennedy, the lack of intra-party understanding of the nature of his differences with Nelson and the merits thereof, and Nelson's hesitation in trying to get rid of him and his difficulty in finding a candidate as a vehicle for his decision once it was taken.

PRECEDENTS

Party politics in Wisconsin has been a curious cross between statutory patterns that have survived although they have not worked, and voluntary machinery that has not been endorsed by law but has suited the practicalities of Wisconsin life. The informality and the uncertainties have resulted in a lack of formal procedures and rules. Out of these incidents come the precedents that make the rules for the future.

There is a comparable situation in the drafting of party platforms in Wisconsin, which always has been a cross between a surface honoring of the legal requirements, and a tacit acceptance of practical necessity. The law says explicitly that the party platform is a document composed by all the nominees of a party for state office. In point of fact, however, it is usually the work of the candidate for the governorship or the gubernatorial incumbent and at the very least, he exercises a veto power. That is what is likely to develop in the future, as a genuine two-party competition matures, in the selection of party chairmen.

It's Getting So Farmers Have to Be Real Lawyers

From The Norfolk (Neb.) Daily News

Pleas to get the government out of the farming business are heard as often from the farmers themselves as anyone. Yet when it comes to adopting farm legislation, the pleas seem to get lost.

Nebraska's Third District congressman, Ralph Beermann, was elected from a farming area while campaigning against all sorts of restrictions, price supports and other props in the agricultural field.

He has not let up on the fight since he has been in Washington.

In a speech on the floor of the House a few days ago, Congressman Beermann said he had been told by his constituents that "success in farming today depends more on being able to interpret agriculture department directives than on knowledge of seed and soil."

It may reach a point where a law degree will be a prerequisite to tilling the land.

mascus from Cairo, where he had been a vice president in the U.A.R. government.

His resignation left but on Syrian in a high post in the U.A.R. government, emphasizing Egyptian predominance in the union of the two countries proclaimed in February 1958. The two countries are separated by 150 miles of Israeli and Arab territory.

Serraj was reported to have resigned being "kicked upstairs" to the vice presidency last month because it involved a loss of power in Syria and a corresponding increase in authority for his rival, Marshal Amer.

It was not yet clear what role, if any, Serraj played in the revolt.

Orders Revolt Crushed

In what was called a "United Arab Republic Broadcast," Damascus radio said the situation returned to normal "because of the wisdom" of Amer and Gen. Gamal Feisal, the Syrian army commander.

With his prestige and authority seriously challenged, President Nasser ordered the 15,000 well-armed Egyptian soldiers in Syria to crush the uprising.

Grieving that "Arab blood will be shed by Arabs," he said in a broadcast from Cairo:

"It is impossible that I could join the enemies of nationalism and announce the dissolution of the United Arab Republic."

At one point Radio Damascus claimed that Marshal Amer, Nasser's chief reliance in crushing the revolt, had been arrested in the predawn uprising.

It also declared all ports and airfields had been closed — to prevent reinforcement of the Egyptians — and that the rebels were "fully in control of the situation" in all parts of Syria.

The revolutionaries also claimed the support of the U.A.R. air force commander in Syria and the army commanders in western and southern Syria. Northern tribesmen around Aleppo were reported backing Nasser, however.

Then Damascus radio announced that the revolutionary command had met with Amer who "worked out an understanding. Military questions have now gone back to their normal course with reliance and trust in the wisdom of the commander in chief of the armed forces and the commander of the 1st (Syrian) army, about carrying out the objectives of the armed forces and of the United Arab Republic," the communique said.

"We are lucky to achieve the aims of the United Arab Republic armed forces command," the communique added.

The broadcast said the rebels had submitted the problems and aims of the army to Amer who "expressed understanding of the true state of affairs of the army and took adequate measures to solve these problems."

What the problems were was not explained.

Nasser had warned the rebels earlier in a Cairo broadcast that he had issued orders for the 15,000 Egyptian soldiers in Syria to march on Damascus, the Syrian capital, and stamp out the uprising. Broadcasts from Aleppo in northern Syria said northern Syrian tribes were standing by Nasser.

committee to supervise and control all colonies and dependent territories.

This document, which ran nearly 6,000 words, portrayed the United States as the master mind behind the colonial powers and accused the Americans of pushing colonial schemes of their own.

The latest Soviet arms program emphasized these main points:

1. A freeze of military budgets.
2. A renunciation of the use of atomic weapons.
3. A ban on war propaganda.
4. A nonaggression pact between the countries of NATO and the Warsaw treaty.
5. A withdrawal of foreign troops from alien territories.
6. Measures against further spreading of nuclear weapons.
7. Establishment of atom free zones in Africa and Central Europe.
8. Measures to lessen the danger of a surprise attack.

The memorandum said these proposals could be considered separately or together and could be taken up without diverting attention from general disarmament efforts.

Shortly before the memorandum came out Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had a four-hour talk at the Soviet Foreign Minister's headquarters.

Rusk was understood to have urged Gromyko to explain what the Soviets mean by "guaranteed access" to West Berlin after they sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.

In another development, Ghana, India, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela called for an urgent assembly investigation into the death of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in a plane crash in Northern Rhodesia Sept. 17. They asked that the matter be

Nixon in California Race for Governorship

State Republican leaders, openly backing Nixon over three other announced GOP candidates, were plainly jubilant that he had agreed there—it is in public service," he said to run. But they faced the prospect of intraparty strife over the gubernatorial nomination.

Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight gave notice he's in the GOP race nation; that law enforcement is dates: "I am the one who has to stay. So did the Assembly minority leader, Joseph C. Harold J. political hoodlugging," that em-

Knight, who gave way to former Sen. William F. Knowland's Nixon-supported candidacy and withdrew from the race for governor in 1958, gave this advice to Democrats in a televised interview: Register Republican next year so you can vote against Nixon in the June primary.

Californians will be able to vote only for their own party candidates in that primary for the first time in modern history. Cross-filing, which allowed office-seekers to run on both tickets, was repealed by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Nixon, brisk and confident and natty in an all-blue ensemble, told newsmen that he actually didn't decide until Tuesday night that he would go after the $40,000-a-year state job.

Only five people knew of his plans in advance, he said. They were his wife Pat, daughters Julie, 13, and Tricia, 15; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Kyle Palmer, ailing retired political editor of the Los Angeles Times.

Nixon opened the news conference with a 10-minute statement in which he struck hard at Gov. Brown and his Democratic administration.

"California needs a new governor," he said. "It needs a new leader."

Wants to Run

Nixon said that after 14 years as a California congressman (1948-50) and senator (1950-52), then vice president of the United States, he found himself restive in his role as a practicing attorney.

"I find that my heart is not totally in public service," he said.

He said he was disturbed that California's state government expenditures are the highest in the nation; that law enforcement is dates: "I am the one who has to stay. So did the Assembly minority leader, Joseph C. Shell that education has been "short-only chance (1) to win, and (2), of Los Angeles. ## Good Food, Small Talk At Diplomatic Dinner showed three horses pulling a cart.

Said Gromyko to his guests: "You will notice that the horses are all pulling in the same direction."

The crack did not quite cover President Kennedy's objection to troika. It was the President who pointed out to the U.N. Monday that three horses might provide one direction but would three drivers?

For more than an hour, the diplomats ate, sipped and made small talk about their home towns, their common experiences in Europe, the weather, noncontroversial aspects of the U.N. and, in one case, professional baseball.

At last week's lunch, Stevenson had invited any interested Soviets to witness a professional football game. S. G. Lapin, minister of foreign affairs for the Russian federation of Soviet Socialist Republics, said he would be delighted.

Wednesday Stevenson told Lapin he had a pair of tickets for him for Sunday's game between the New York Titans and Boston Patriots, and would send along an American to explain the sport. Lapin thanked him kindly.

"Troika" Cigarettes

The fish course was "yellow pike, Polish style." The meat was chopped steak, tasty but decidedly more proletarian than the Cornish hen served last week to the Soviets by Rusk. Dessert was strawberries and cream, then coffee and liqueurs.

There were boxes of Soviet cigarettes on the table, one of which produced the biggest laugh of the lunch. The brand was labeled "Troika," and the boxployment lagged behind population growth.

Nixon said he had reached this conclusion:

"That the amiable but bungling man who presently is the governor of this state cannot clean up this mess for which he is partially and in many instances substantially responsible."

Asked why he had said yes to running after saying no earlier in the year, Nixon said party leaders had convinced him that he was the best of the available candidates: "I am the one who has the best chance and possibly the best chance (1) to win, and (2), done in Sacramento."

Panama Seeks Hike in Rent For Canal

May Ask Up to 50 Per Cent of Shipping Toll

By GERRY ROBICHAUD
Chicago Daily News Foreign Service

PANAMA CITY, Panama—The Panamanian push to hike Uncle Sam's Panama Canal rent is expected to get under way when Congress convenes here next month. And this time, more than ever before, the Panamanians really mean business.

Whatever else he may be, President Roberto F. Chiari is no demagog and moreover he is basically a good friend of the United States.

But he was in grim earnest when he recently announced that Panama was preparing to seek basic and far-reaching revisions in the treaty spelling out Uncle Sam's rights — and his obligations — so far as the operations of the canal are concerned.

Violent Demonstrations

Chiari's unexpected announcement already has evoked cheers from rabble-rousing Aquilino Boyd, president of the Panamanian Nationalist Party, who at times has resorted to violent demonstrations in his drive to win Panama a 50 per cent cut of the canal's gross take.

Chiari, however, is acting independently of Boyd and out of a deep conviction — which most Panamanians share — that Panama deserves far more than it is getting from canal revenues.

Strictly speaking, Uncle Sam doesn't pay rent for the canal but gives Panama an annuity of $1-950,000 which for all practical purposes amounts to the same thing.

Will Ask 50 Per Cent

While Chiari has purposely refrained from giving any details of what he wants from Washington, it's a safe bet his asking price will be considerably higher than what he will be willing to settle for. The big question is whether Uncle Sam can come up with anything that will approach Chiari's minimum demands.

Most reliable observers here are of the opinion that Chiari will ask for a percentage cut in canal tolls somewhere in the vicinity of Boyd's 50 per cent but that he would gladly settle for half that figure.

To the U.S. argument that this is impossible because it would mean putting canal operations into the red, Chiari's retort will be that canal tolls should be raised sufficiently to take care of Panama's demands.

That's where the main hitch comes in.

Shipping Lobby

Canal tolls haven't been raised since the canal first went into operation nearly a half century ago. And if the shipping lobby in Washington has its way again, as it always has in the past, the prospects for a boost in canal tolls at any time in the immediate future are dim indeed.

But, encouraged by what they consider to be President Kennedy's genuine interest in and sympathy for Latin American problems, many Panamanians from Chiari on down are hoping he will muster every available White House resource to defeat the shipping lobby on the toll issue.

Why they assume in the first place that Kennedy would look favorably on a toll increase is difficult to say. Chances are it is no more than a guess or a hunch, for there is no reason to believe that this issue has ever been discussed with Kennedy since he went to the White House.

Need Serious Thought

Many Panamanians, however, profess to feel it in their bones that the man who conceived the alliance for progress for Latin America is precisely the kind of a man who would understand and go along with a hike in canal tolls that conceivably could give Panama as much as $25,000,000 a year in new revenue.

It may be no more than a dream on their part, but it is one that numerous Panamanians sincerely believe.

As matters now stand, Chiari is believed ready to unveil his Panama Canal plan in his annual state of the union message to be delivered at the opening of Congress Oct. 1.

No matter how fantastic his proposals may seem at first glance Washington would do well to study them carefully and seriously.

To reject them out of hand parked. It was mounted on a could well hasten the day when trailer.

Compromise In State Tax Fight Unlikely

Political Writer Says
Breach Between State Leaders Widening

Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY— The prospect for a useful or significant compromise between the Republican legislature and Democratic Gov. Nelson on Wisconsin tax revision is rapidly diminishing.
Green Bay Rotary club members were told Thursday.

John Wyn-
gaard, Madison Wyngaard correspondent for the Appleton Post-Crescent, reported on the difficulties between political adversaries, following the governor's veto a month ago of the Republican tax revision bill that was based on a proposal for the first Wisconsin sales tax, with some exemptions.

Wyngaard said that many persons interested in tax reform originally believed that the fact of bipartisan control of the state government would contribute to bold reorganization of the tax structure. There was an opportunity to achieve such change without political recriminations in the 1962 election campaigns, he recalled.

Agreement Difficult
But political relations between the executive and the legislative leadership have worsened to such a degree that significant agreement on fundamental tax policy changes will be extremely difficult, the reporter related.

Without the enactment of a sales tax the revenue volume required to adjust local property taxes or to relieve personal property taxes on business and agriculture cannot be raised. Wyn-gaard said, recalling the warning of the governor's "blue ribbon" commission that the state's income taxes are already out of line with those of competitive states.

The club was told that the deficit in the current state budget will require an increase in present state tax rates, which will probably be achieved through higher personal income taxes.

Ultimately the force of higher spending demands and the compulsion of reasonable conformity with the taxing policies of neighoring industrial states will compel tax revision, he said.

Senator Questions Diet Substitute Being Sent Abroad

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John J. Williams, D-Del., says more than 45,000 cans of a concentrated diet substitute have been shipped to South Viet Nam under the foreign aid program.

"Who says our foreign aid program of feeding the underdeveloped peoples of the world has not been a success?" said Williams in a statement Tuesday. "Apparently now the International Cooperation Administration finds it necessary to put them on a diet on the basis that they have been getting too fat on Uncle Sam's generosity."

An ICA spokesman said South
Viet Nam had been asked for a refund of the $4,000 purchase price before Williams raised a question about the matter.

Noting that the product can be used as a diet supplement in cases of malnutrition, the ICA spokesman said the purchase might be proper if South Viet Nam can show that it was bought for a legitimate therapeutic use.

Order Study Of Ambulances

County Medical Unit
Appoints Committee;
Eye Code of Ethics

A study of ambulance services in Appleton and a possible code of ethics for ambulance operators and attendants has been ordered by the Outagamie County Medical Society.

The medical society has appointed Appleton Health Commissioner Dr. Marvin S. Kagen chairman of a three-man committee.
Others are Dr. Joseph Benton, a member of the city board of health and Dr. Paul Cunningham, a local physician.

Dr. Kagen told the health board today his committee will meet soon with ambulance operators and Sheriff Robert Heinritz and Appleton's Traffic Lt. John V.
Gosch.

Appleton doctors have criticized the ambulance operators for making diagnoses and reporting that to news media.

Dr. Benton said he believed the practice not only is unethical, but illegal.

County Standards
Dr. Neidhold, president of the health board, said he knew of an instance where the ambulance operator erroneously reported a man had suffered a heart attack.

Outagamie County has set up minimum standards for ambulance attendants and drivers, as were ordered in 11,126 cases following court convictions for serious moving violations or after several convictions within a relatively short time. The length of revocation varies from 30 days to a year.

Suspensions were ordered for 8,313 drivers.
Suspended licenses are returned to drivers at the end of the period involved. In the case of revocation, the law requires a new application, complete license examination and proof of financial responsibility.

"Other than for that small percentage there is no reason why ambulances have to race through town," he said.

Aid for Blind Law Approved

State, Milwaukee
Agree to Supply
Braille Material

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Blind persons who had been worried about a lack of supplies for braille readings and phonograph records were reassured this week when the legislature enacted a new law for state aid to help to pay for such services.

A new state law paves the way for a contract between the state and the Milwaukee public library through which the latter will act as agent for furnishing special services to the blind, made available by the U. S. Library of Congress without cost.

The $45,000 estimated to be spent by the state during the next two years will provide the cost of the distribution and handling of the materials by the Milwaukee city agency. In previous years such service was rendered by the Chicago city library, without charge, but that city suspended the service about a year ago.

1,500 Handicapped
The state department of public welfare, which urged the legislature to provide the funds for the service, estimates that about 1-500 blind and visually handicapped persons in the state are now involved.

The potential use of the service is considerably greater, as shown by the census figures on the numbers of persons with vision defects or blindness.

The Milwaukee library will send its materials, on request, to local public libraries where they will be available to the blind.

Funeral Rites Set for Chilton Policeman

CHILTON—Funeral services for James Spetta, 66, rural Chilton, a former Calumet County traffic patrolman, who died early Wednesday at Milwaukee, will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Ebenezer Evangelical and Reformed Church with the Rev. Quentin Mieschberger officiating.

Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery. The Chilton American Legion Post will conduct graveside military services.

Spetta was born July 16, 1895,
before Williams raised a question at Reedsville. He moved to the Chilton area in his youth and worked in industry and was a patrolman for three years, 1938 to

of malnutrition, the ICA spokesman said the purchase might be proper if South Viet Nam can show that it was bought for a legitimate therapeutic use.

19,000 Fewer Drivers on Road

MADISON (AP)—The State Motor Vehicle Department reported that 19,439 motorists lost their driving licenses in the first eight months of this year. The figure was 18,580 for the same period of a year ago.

James L. Karns, department commissioner, said revocations were ordered in 11,126 cases following court convictions for serious moving violations or after several convictions within a relatively short time. The length of revocation varies from 30 days to
a year.

Suspensions were ordered for
8,313 drivers.
Suspended licenses are returned to drivers at the end of the period
involved. In the case of revocation, the law requires a new application, complete license examination and proof of financial responsibility.

CAB, Airlines To Talk Over Industry's Ills

12 Carriers Will Argue Improvements That They Suggested

Chicago Daily News Service
WASHINGTON — The new chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board Alan S. Boyd is a believer in preventive medicine. He wants to do something about the airline industry's current case of sniffles before it turns to pneumonia. Boyd doesn't intend to wait until the airlines are plagued by empty seats and sinking profits — call for help. Instead, he has invited the presidents of 12 major U.S. companies to come to Washington and tell him their symptoms. The informal, closed-door session will last all day today in the board room of CAB headquarters here. Similar get-togethers will be held later with the operators of local short-run airlines and air cargo services. The idea for these conferences, unprecedented in CAB history, was born shortly after Boyd took over the chairmanship last January.

One of his first official acts was to write letters to the heads of each airline asking for constructive suggestions. In time, everybody replied itself — how to speed up and simplify its procedures, key policy changes, the possible need for new legislation. They will also ponder the long range problems of the industry. The airlines need for a tonic profit are clearly in their broad philosophical plain," said chats.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Very Rev. Leon J. Burns, former director of the Wisconsin province of the Society of Jesus, was installed Tuesday night as rector and president of the one-year old Jesuit College at St. Bonifacius, Minn. CAB Executive Director Morris Chertkov "It will be far removed from any pending cases." Most points on the agenda come from the suggestions of the airlines, not the CAB, he said. The group will discuss ways of improving the work of the CAB and its procedures, key policy changes, the possible need for new legislation. They will also ponder the long range problems of the industry. The airlines need for a tonic profit are clearly in their broad philosophical plain," said chats.

TOMORROW A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skedaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

If you've wondered what owning an expensive car is like, here's where you find out—without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk and imagine the mountain of gear it'll gobble. Step through one of those wide-opening doors and plump down on a seat the size of a sofa. Then—head for the open highway. ■ That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender undershirts that provide extra protection against flying stones and corrosive salt) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan—sensitivity at its Sunday best

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

The car that puts sport in the driver's seat!

*If you want to get a road-relishing run for your money (while neatly ducking a big run on your bank account), you've come to the right place. Step right up and meet the latest version of the car that's proved its mettle in the fiercest competition going—'62 Corvair. Bigger new brakes team up with Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction for just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut—and you can have bucket seats* in it up front if you like. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside. Yet Corvair is still as sparing as ever on gas—and an absolute teetotaler when it comes to things like antifreeze!*

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp.*). Then for lading out the power just the way you want it, you can pick from a 3-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission, a 4-speeder* or Corvair Powerglide.* ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. And there are refined brakes with more lining surface for clean on-the-spot stops. Inside, you'll see that some smart-looking things have happened. And you'll also find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on the 500 Coupe, 700 Coupe and Sedan, Monza Coupe and Sedan, Monza and 700 Station Wagons. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you.

*Optional at extra cost.

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars

It's the car just about everybody's been trying to build. But it remained for Chevrolet—the make more people depend on—to build it the way it should be built. Here are all solid, time-tested virtues you know you can count on from all the Chevrolet family—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models, each built a new way for easier service and maintenance. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens, bag and baggage. Easy to drive? Just wrap your hands around the wheel and boss this one around for a little while. Price? That's one of the most pleasant surprises of them all!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. Beneath that fetching, fresh-shaped bonnet you'll find the kind of long-lived dependability that has always been Chevrolet's special stock in trade—a frugal 4- or a satiny 6-cylinder engine. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. More savings: The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. And every Chevy II rides on tough, durable—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs that flex as a single unit, eliminating the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ Maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of passenger and packing room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done. Yet the price is just as sensible as the car itself, as a few well-spent moments with your dealer will convince you.

Congress Did Get Some Work Done This Year

With Conflicting Currents, Odd That Much Was Passed

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — This is the time, as Congress adjourns, when the scorecard on what it accomplished is tallied up for praise or blame. The measure of its usefulness is in terms of what legislation a president obtained or failed to get. Actually, the wonder is that in a congress of so many conflicting currents anything much was accomplished at all.

Lawrence

For the Congress of the United States, in a parliamentary sense, has not been a responsible institution for many years. It is not responsible to any party. It is not responsible to the president. In fact, it is responsible locally—not collectively—to the residents of 437 congressional districts and the constituencies of 100 senators.

Once Upon a Time

Time was when the two major parties held frequent caucuses and when individual members were required to abide by the wishes of the majority of their fellow members in the party. Today both parties are split wide open, and leadership is a sort of makeshift arrangement to secure the passage of those bills which are the least controversial.

This doesn't mean that in the current Congress bills always were passed or failed by large margins. On the contrary, narrow margins often marked the passage or defeat of important measures.

What affects Congress more than anything else in a session like the one that has just closed is the mood of the country. President Kennedy was elected by one of the narrowest majorities of the popular vote in history. When the country is almost equally divided, there is no overall mandate in a presidential election which can be said to give the president the influence he needs to exert his leadership. Then, on top of all this, came the crises in the international situation. These tended to slow down the momentum behind various bills which in normal times might have been readily passed.

Difficult for President

It's difficult, indeed, for any president in abnormal times to shape up a program that will command a majority in both houses. It happens that in this case economic conditions also were certainly not normal. A recession developed early in 1960, and unemployment was running at a substantial rate when Mr. Kennedy took office. The remedies customarily proposed — involving vast spending programs — were blocked by those in Congress who felt that a temporary economic setback might be made worse through inordinate spending with all the dangers of an inflation that could reduce the purchasing power of an already shrinking dollar.

Basically, the last Congress proved wrong those prophets who barked the Kennedy cause in the last campaign with the argument that since there would be a Democratic majority in Congress, the election of a Democratic president would mean passage of a comprehensive legislative program. Mr. Kennedy did not get almost a two-thirds majority in both houses in the 1960 election, but these analysts have consistently underestimated the conservative strength in both major parties in Congress, supported by a majority sentiment in the country as a whole. The country is not in favor of standing still, nor is it reactionary in its thinking about needed reforms. It wants, however, reforms which can be shown to be sound and arguments. Thus, President Kennedy, conscious of the religious issue in the last campaign, insisted that any aid to elementary schools that happen to be run by churches would be unconstitutional. But he never answered satisfactorily the argument that, if the federal government can appropriate any money at all for church-operated colleges—as it has done in several instances—then it can constitutionally do so for elementary and secondary schools. Mr.

Seat Belts Will Cost Drivers in State Million

Prices on Required Equipment Range
From $6.50 to $14.95

MADISON (AP)—A new state law requiring front seat safety belts in 1962 model cars will cost Wisconsin auto buyers upwards of $1 million.

Automobile industry spokesmen set the figures on the basis of estimates that 150,000 new models will move through Wisconsin showrooms this year.

Seat belt prices now range from $6.50 to $14.95, installed. And to comply with the new act, every 1962 car will need two sets in the front seat.

But since all new models will be equipped with belt anchors before they roll off the assembly line, the installed seat belt price is expected to be cut considerably. Some sources set the saving at 50 per cent.

Opposed Law

Louis Milan, Madison, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Automotive Trades Association, which opposed the legislation, contends the law could add $3 million to the total price tag of 1962 models.

"All kinds of figures are being booted around on the cost of belts but a number of factors figure to bear out our present position that prices will average about $10 per belt," Milan said.

He identified the factors as the customer's choice of colors and types of buckles. "A lot of buyers will want the best available," he added.

The bill requiring belts in new cars was signed by Gov. Gaylord Nelson Monday. Nelson called the legislation an important step in traffic safety and noted Wisconsin is the first state requiring belt installation with the sale of a new auto.

Installed at Plant

Dealers expect new cars coming to them will be equipped with belts. If they're not, dealers will install.

A federal act requiring a card in the window showing costs of vehicle will advise purchasers the retail cost of the belts.

Some Wisconsin auto dealers will order cars without belts for sales to out of state purchasers.

Post-Crescent Food Editor

Whether it's an old-fashioned dessert or a modern-day, calories counted entree planned for the menu... it's the flavor of the food that's important. The flavor must please the palate if any dish is to win a good-eating award.

Making food flavorful is worth any homemaker's while... here is an area in which any cook can shine. Unusual sauces, imaginary treatment of common foods in the budget-saving class and variety in menus can work wonders for any family routine of meals.

To prove a point, we offer four recipes that are easy to make... yet outstanding because of their flavor appeal. Rice is made into molds and served with a delectable olive-ham sauce. Orange sections, juice and currant jelly combine to make an out-of-this-world sauce for ice cream. Two contrasting recipes... representing the old and the new... are spicy baked apples encased in flaky pastry crust and a modern, light-as-air cheese souffle that boasts but 340 calories per serving.

Apple dumplings have been a part of the American food scene since early Colonial days. They were specialties in the Virginia apple country... the Pennsylvania Dutch sold these spicy dumplings in their open farmers' markets. But each of these four recipes is worth trying... each guaranteed to perk up any meal in its own flavorful way.

3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
Dash each cayenne, dry mustard
1 cup grated cheddar or American cheese

Pour into ungreased 1 1/2-quart baking or souffle dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Serve immediately to four at 340 calories per serving.

Combine orange juice in saucepan with sugar and currant jelly; stir and bring to a boil. Cook 25 minutes. Add cooked peel and continue cooking until mixture comes to soft ball stage (230 degrees) on candy thermometer, about 15 minutes.

Remove from heat and add orange eighths. Cover and store in refrigerator at least eight hours. Serve as sauce for ice cream.

Mrs. Dorothy Seybold Bakes Best Oatmeal Cookies in Contest

The contest was held last week in connection with the homemakers' fall council meeting at Chilston, Mrs. Seybold will enter the state bake-off at Wausau.

Runners-up in the contest were second place winner Mrs. Philip Bastian, Brillion, of the Alcott Homemakers Club, and third place winner Mrs. Ray Stahl, New Holstein, of the Swampedge Club. Judges were Mrs. Andrew Bartel, Marytown, and Calumet County Agent Orrin Meyer. Thirty-seven entries were submitted in the contest which stressed the use of local farm products. The contest was open to any homemaker in the county, whether a member of a club or not.

Mrs. Ira Bartz, Rantoul, was chairman of the event, assisted by Mrs. Ezra Keuer, Mrs. Edgar Steinbach and Mrs. Herbert Schoen.

Here are the three prize-winning recipes:

Old-Fashioned Oatmeal Cookies (Seybold Recipe)

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup white sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons milk

1 cup raisins
2 cups uncooked oats
Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices into bowl. Add shortening, brown and white sugars, egg and milk. Beat until smooth, out about two minutes. Fold in raisins and oats. Drop from a teaspoon onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in 375-degree oven 12 to 15 minutes. Recipe makes about up three dozen cookies.

Oatmeal Coconut Crisps (Bastian Recipe)

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup shortening
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup quick cooking oats

1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 cup toasted coconut
Sift flour and measure. Then sift again with baking soda and salt. Set this mixture aside. Measure coconut and spread it on shallow baking tin. Place in 350-degree oven and toast 15 minutes. Add cooked coconut, occasionally to toast evenly. Allow the coconut to cool, then break it up by crushing it between your hands. Set aside.

Cream shortening and add sugar gradually. When well mixed, add egg and vanilla. Beat until fluffy. Stir in the sifted dry ingredients together with the oats, pecans and coconut. Blend well. Drop by teaspoonful onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in 350-degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes. Recipe makes about four dozen, crunchy cookies.

1 cup sour cream
1 cup raisins

1 1/2 cups oatmeal
1 cup nuts
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 cups flour
Mix ingredients. Drop by spoonful onto greased cookie sheet. Bake 10 to 12 minutes in 375-degree oven.

Ski Club Plans Party

Mo-Ski-Tow Hill Ski Club will start its season's activities with a Gay Nineties party Oct. 21 at New London Golf Club.

Committee members who will meet tonight at the home of Miss Jan Rowan, Potato Point, Appleton, are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Macklin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Follick, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Leith, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Marsarius, John Meyer, Miss Judy Dixon and Fred Heinemann.

The club is planning organized ski trips and two bus trips for each month of the skiing season. George Kubisiak, New London, is club president.

This Ambrosial Concoction... Orange Sauce to serve over ice cream... is easy to make, may be prepared in advance and definitely adds a gourmet touch to a simple dessert. The longer the sauce is kept covered and left to chill, the better and richer it becomes.

Old Dominion Apples are just a little different from the usual dessert dumpling recipes. The core is filled with orange marmalade instead of spices and sugar. Then the biscuit or pastry dough is coated with butter and sprinkled with a sugar-spice mixture. When the crust is sealed around the apple and baked, the flavors blend wonderfully.

Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

GUEST HAD HARD TIME

Four of us elderly ladies went to an 8 p.m. dinner at a small town restaurant. I was a guest of one of them. The other three ordered complete dinners which was too much for me at six a late hour, so ordered a hot sausage sandwich costing 75 cents and a cup of coffee.

When we were finished, my hostess, looking at my platter said, "Your plate is clean." Now anyone knows that a hot sausage sandwich has two slices of bread, 3 or 4 small sausages and sauce which soaks into the bread. This woman thinks she knows the last word on etiquette. The food of the three women had just been picked over with plenty left on the plates when they were taken away. When it came time to pay the check, my hostess said, "You can leave the tip." I asked how much and she said, "One dollar." She picked up my dollar and laid it by her plate under her salt shaker. Did I do right or should I have left half of my sandwich on the platter?

Louise Davis Answers:

Your hostess has a lot to learn when it comes to etiquette. There is no reason why you should have left a speck of sausage or a crumb of bread on your platter. You were hungry enough to eat it, the whole 75 cents worth. Your friend's comment was calling attention to something that she thought was a social faux pas, but which wasn't. Because you were invited as a guest, you shouldn't have had any part in the tipping, so your hostess committed another social boo boo. I'm glad you ate all of your sausage sandwich. It sounds so intriguing that I must try one and will bet the platter clean.

Pope John Tells Views On Women

BY CHARLOTTE BRENER
Chicago Daily News Foreign Service

ROME — The pope has some definite ideas about working wives.

In a recent speech on "Women and Professions," Pope John said:

"A woman should select a profession in which she always develops her maternal spirit. Her contribution to society should be in the fields of education, social work, and religion, thus transforming her profession into spiritual maternity."

Often a woman's work "outside the domestic walls weakens the family chains and her home ceases to be a warm, welcome, and reposeful nest," the pope observed.

A woman's "precious energy must not be spent in work that interferes with her fundamental family duties," said the pope. Otherwise it will result in debasing her and the foundation of her dignity, which is a family.

The pope emphasized that today the world "has need of maternal sensibilities in order to ameliorate an atmosphere of violence and grossness in which men struggle."

"Progress raises women to responsibility in the social and political plane," the pope said. "Woman is as necessary as man for the progress of society, especially in the fields that require tact and a maternal instinct."

Seek New Solutions

The modern social structure is still far from allowing women to realize the fullness of their personality and at the same time offer a real contribution to society, the pope said. "There is a need to find new solutions for women," he added, "because women no longer exhaust themselves in the restrictive environment of family life as they once did."

Equal rights between men and women does not in any way imply equality of functions," the pope concluded. "The creator has given women endowments, inclinations, and natural dispositions that are different from men; that means they should be allotted different tasks."

Bland Flavors

Bel Paese, Edam and Gouda are fine to serve with fresh pears, apples or grapes because they are mild-flavored.

Miss Margaret Mael, Milwaukee, and Edward Sibowski, Milwaukee, were married at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Rose Catholic Church, Clintonville. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Anson Mael, 222 E. Madison St., Clintonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sibowski, Crivitz.

Q. I'd like to make a circular felt tablecloth for a short round table and would like to trim it with fringe along the bottom. How do I measure for the right yardage? Mrs. D. D.

A. Measure the diameter of the table, plus the height of the table off the floor. Add the diameter and twice the height measurements together and you will have the size of the circle you'll need. But be sure to measure the depth of the fringe, and allow for this, before cutting the circle.

Q. I am very short and can never get patterns for slacks or shorts to fit properly. I've been told to try the proportioned sizes for the legs. Are these just shorter in the pant? How do they differ from regular size patterns? Miss L. R.

A. Proportioned patterns for pants (all lengths), are made to fit various figures. Each is specifically proportioned in the waist, hip, and leg length. But, even more important, the crotch length is proportioned. Also, the length of the darts vary for the different figures. If you've had trouble in the past, you'll find this new sizing how to start. Can you tell me? Mrs. S.M.S.

Jewelry Glamor

The history of jewelry is the costume, proportioned to your history of woman! An anonymous size, and expressive of your individuality.

That may seem a tall order, but it is really simple to fill. To exemplify in terms of this season's costume jewelry . . .

An appropriate and costume-complementary daytime necklace might be fashioned of faked jade, amber, turquoise or garnet set in brushed "gold." It would be real looking, neither flamboyant nor yet prim.

As for size, all jewelry is more lavishly proportioned. But that does not mean a tiny woman will not find pieces scaled down to her stature.

For both - day and evening wear, jewelry reflects three inspirations: the delicate, be-tassled designs of the Victorian era; the bold opulence of the Far East; the free-form motifs of modern art. And therein is your cue to expressing your individuality — your look.

Today, of course, jewelry design is a highly developed art. small can be repaired by make-Wearing jewelry to advantage is up. How to give the illusion of an art, too. Two important measures were adopted at Denver, the "past service" classification has been abandoned and "senior active member" substituted and there is no longer a percentage restriction in this classification.

Another important measure adopted was that as of January, 1962, it will be mandatory that all clubs have two meetings each month. Picnics in the summer may be counted as meetings.

Two new clubs have been added to this district since the convention. Rapid City, Iowa, and Kenosha. During the parley, Mrs. Hoffer was International "Altrusan" reporter at all seminar meetings. She also assisted Gov. Hazel Stewart of Mansfield, Ohio, District 5, in the membership seminar.

Next Convention

Miss Keup reported on Appleton club activities at the District 7 luncheon during the convention. The next meeting will be in July of 1963 in Philadelphia.

Shaw Comedy to Open OSC Artists Series

Wisconsin Actor in 'Arms and Man' Production by Cleveland Play House

BY JINGO
When the famous Cleveland Play House troupe launches Oshkosh State College's Artists Series Oct. 7, a Wisconsin actor will be playing the lead role in Shaw's "Arms and the Man."

Michael McGuire of Oconomowoc plays the professional "chocolate soldier" known as Capt. Bluntschli. A graduate of both Beloit College and the University of Wisconsin, McGuire has been with the Cleveland Play House for three years. Before joining the company he was an off-Broadway actor.

Cleveland critics have praised the Wisconsin man for both his acting and directing work with the troupe. He was cited for his sensitive direction of Shaw's "Candida," one of last season's touring productions and for his dramatic work in the title roles of "Volpone" and "Epitaph for George Dillon," and his portrayal of Mephisto in "Doctor Faustus."

Jingo

"Arms and the Man" is one of George Bernard Shaw's gayest and most popular comedies. Although a satire on war, the play does not picture soldiers in battle. With his peculiar humor, the Irish playwright succeeds in pricking two bubbles at the same time in a double-barreled attack against the romanticism of love and the glamor of war.

The three-act comedy was the forerunner of the delightful musical by Oscar Straus, "The Chocolate Soldier," just as Shaw's "Pygmalion" later was made into the current musical hit, "My Fair Lady."

In true Shawian tradition, the famous writer makes his characters universal in this piece. Capt. Bluntschli is the profes-

Shaw plays than any other theater in the United States. Records show a total of 19 plays in 42 separate productions at the Play House. Even the Theatre Guild, which had exclusive rights to new Shaw plays at one time, never exceeded this record.

The Cleveland playhouse today is the oldest professional theater in the nation and one of the most outstanding. Founded in 1915 as a community theater, it was a serious-minded movement that lent itself to later professionalism. Today it gives plays in three Cleveland theaters simultaneously during a season that runs from September into mid-May.

This year is the second season on the road for the group's touring repertory company. Besides its drama season in Cleveland and on the road, the Play House operates a school under the apprentice system, fosters a 300-student children's theater and holds an annual Shakespeare Festival each spring. More than 20,000 students from Ohio and neighboring states attend the Cleveland festival each year.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. at the Grand Theater, Oshkosh, for "Arms and the Man" and all the other featured artists on the OSC Saturday night series.

Attractions for the rest of the season include a wide variety of headliners — the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra, Oct. 21; soprano Frances Yeend of the Metropolitan Opera in February; guitarist and singer Richard Dyer-Bennet and the Riverside Chamber Singers in March, and the spoofing, talented Myra Kinch dancers in April.

Here are Two Scenes From Shaw's "Arms and the Man," to be presented on the Grand Theater stage in Oshkosh Oct. 7 by the Cleveland Play House Repertory Company. The three-act play opens the 1961-1962 season of the Oshkosh State College Artists Series. Agave, Wisconsin actor, Michael McGuire of Oconomowoc, is seen in the leading role of Capt. Bluntschli with actress Sally Noble as Raina. Right, Jo Ann Finnell plays Catherine, Lynn Storer is seen as Nikola and Richard Oberlin as the pompous Petkoff.

Dr. Kildare Starts TV Life Tonight

BY TV SCOUT
6:30-7:30 (channel 2) — The Summer Sports Spectacular closes out its season with the finals of the National Polo Open from the Oak Brook Country Club near Chicago. You'll see the Milwaukee Polo Club beat the Beaver Ridge Farm team from Detroit, 13-9. The team work of the winners, who have some Mexican riders among them, is amazing.

6:30-7:30 (channel 5-4) — JFK Reports considers the first eight months of the Kennedy administration. This is done mostly through interviews with Congressional leaders, plus an interesting montage of Kennedy's major speeches (the TV debates, inaugural address, State of the Union message) compared with what his administration has accomplished a large way and, overnight, to date.

7:30 (channel 11) — The Donna Reed Show has one of its best highly-touted new shows is Dr. Kildare. Baltimore created these characters in the movies. This is particularly well-made, but it does get a bit hysterical. Beverly Garland is the guest star, playing a tormented alcoholic, and Kildare's handling of the case is more therapeutic than therapeutic.

Marriage Without Love Could Be Sentence at Hard Labor

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I've husband's mother has been keep has had a few minor scrapes but had so much free advice from ing our baby. Both my husband nothing serious. relatives that my head is swim- and I work. Last night she told. She admits she's a poor driver ming. Now I'd like your opinion because I know you'll give it to me straight. I'm 38, once divorced, and once widowed. I've worked hard all my life and I can't say that either marriage was a good one. Now I've met a man who is 78 and wants to marry me. He was married to the same woman for 52 years and now that she's gone he is lonely. He has no close relatives. He is very well-fixed financially and has offered to sign everything over to me the day we marry. He expects only companionship.

Landers

I'm tired of working and fighting off men who have everything in mind except marriage. What do you say?—Through the Mill

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm engaged to a lovely girl who is a rotten driver. She's 22 years old, was a brilliant student and seems very sensible—until she gets behind the wheel of a car. Then her intelligence goes down to zero. How she ever got a driver's license I will never understand. Her father refuses to let her have the family car because she has smashed it up three times. She begs to borrow my car on Saturday afternoons and I always weaken and say yes. She would like to be down only one or two tricks. If you have no real choice between one guess and another it's better to limit your loss to .500 points.

No Reason to Guess
In this case, however, South has no reason to guess. He can find out how to play the diamonds. After drawing two rounds of trumps, South should lead a club to dummy's ace and return to his hand with the ace of diamonds to lead out the king and queen of clubs. East's bid and the opening lead show that East started with five spades. He is known to have started with four trumps. If East can follow to three clubs, it will be clear that he had only one diamond. As it happens, East would follow to only two clubs. This would locate a second diamond in the East hand. No need for guesswork.

colors, and a widened variety of parquet and strip patterns. While the design of wood floors becomes more intricate, the laying and finishing simplifies. Strip plank and block flooring can be had pre-finished—lengthy processes of applying coatings to seal the wood and to make it wear-resistant and more beautiful have been completed by experts. No floor is easier to lay than a block wood floor. Blocks come with locking edges, which need only to be pressed together to insure proper fit and stability. In addition to plain blocks are those which combine contrasting strips in each block. Herringbone pattern is seen again for wood floors, but both simple and more complex designs use nearly all of the currently popular woods. Booklet, please. # Deadline Set For Enrolling In Baton Class

KAUKAUNA — Two weeks remain for youngsters to sign for the recreation department baton twirling classes, according to Mrs. David Nagan, instructor. The deadline was set for Oct. 6. Classes will start Oct. 14 in the basement of the municipal building. Youngsters will be handled in groups of 10 and all classes will be 45-minute sessions. To date 47 have signed which doubles last year's enrollment. Summer baton twirling instruction attracted 79 youngsters. Participants in the new program will be eligible for appearances in parades and other performances. Enrollment can be made and information on material for dissolving the yeast was too

Sheinwold Wrong Play Early Can be Made Useful

When you have to guess, protect yourself against disaster. Better yet, find a way to spare yourself the guess. South ruffed the second spade, drew two rounds of trumps, cashed the ace of diamonds and led a low diamond toward dummy. When West produced the ten of diamonds, South had to guess. He finally finessed with dummy's jack, losing to the queen. East

If it went sour, as we have seen, South would be slaughtered. Playing the king of diamonds would be the wrong guess if East started with only one diamond, but South

More of Dollar Pocketed by Service Firms

Manufacturers,
Merchants Sad
Over New Trend

BY SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)— Services

are the fastest growing portion of the economy and today take about 40 cents of every dollar consumers spend.

They have provided the biggest increase in the number of jobs. Also they have accounted for much of the rise in the cost of living.

Indications that consumers will pay more than $140 billion this year for all types of services leave some businessmen far from happy. They are the makers of hard goods like autos and appliances and the merchants who sell both hard and soft goods.

Their worry? If the consumer spends more and more on services, there is less of his spendable dollar left to go for goods.

Depend on Goods

But many of the services owe their very being to making and sale of these goods. For example, when you buy a home appliance you please some utility company as well as the merchant and the appliance maker.

You'll be using the services of someone to install the appliance and in time you're likely to use a repair man. Also you may need the services of a financing company and an insurance company when you buy a car or a major appliance.

There's another side to it. When you buy an appliance you may be cutting down on the need of some services. Example: The declining importance of domestic service workers. Or when you buy a car, you may cut further into the need for intercity rail and bus transportation.

Service Prices Rise More

Since 1946 consumer prices as a whole have gone up 52 per cent while the average rise in the service component has been 65 per cent. Department of Labor statistics show a wide variance in the rise of service prices in the last 14 years. Electricity rates on average have soared 11 per cent while the cost of a hospital room has gone up 205 per cent.

Commerce Department figures show Americans spent $19.6 billion last year for household operation including electricity, phone, gas and water charges, domestic service and miscellaneous expenses.

Another $29.6 billion went for interest paid on non-mortgage debt, life insurance, local investment and banking.

Hospital To Benefit Most

Medical services accounted for $12.2 billion. Outlays for hospital care went up most, followed by payments for medical insurance.

The nation's total $107.1 billion for 1960, $4.4 billion more than the previous year. Hospital care $6.1 billion, life insurance $4.7 billion, private education $3.5 billion, and for all levels $2.6 billion.

In the last 14 years the fastest growing item was interest on non-mortgage debt.

Ordinary oils can create their own metallic ash. Above you see what happens when a conventional multi-grade oil is dropped on this electrically heated piston device. These dark spots are deposits containing additive ash. When additive ash builds up in your car's engine, it's bad news.

No ash with Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil. When the same test is tried with new Shell X-100 Premium all the oil vaporizes. The piston device is clean. There is no additive ash. You can expect a cleaner, longer-lasting engine, with less chance for knock and rough running.

Hot piston test shows that new Shell motor oil eliminates a trouble other oils can create. Read how this revolutionary oil can prolong engine life 5 ways.

Here is an astonishing fact every motorist should know before his next oil change: Premium motor oils—with one exception—will produce a deposit called additive ash. This ash can contribute to rough running and knock.

Shell X-100 Premium is the one premium oil that can't produce an additive ash deposit in your engine. Read how this remarkable oil helps your engine last longer.

TODAY every Shell dealer has new Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil ready for your next oil change.

New X-100 Premium is unlike any other motor oil. Its revolutionary new formula eliminates a troublesome deposit that all other premium motor oils actually help create themselves. This deposit is additive ash.

No metallic additives

Additive ash is caused by the metallic additives used to prevent seuffing, sludge deposits, oxidation, and so forth.

With each stroke of the piston, these additives can deposit a tiny amount of metallic salts in the combustion chamber. Here they burn and form additive ash.

This crusty ash can build up in your combustion chamber, can cause your engine to knock and run rough.

New X-100 Premium doesn't contain a single metallic additive. No metallic additives—no additive ash. It's as simple as that.

Additive ash is just one internal trouble that can cause engine problems. You should know about four others, too—and how new Shell X-100 Premium protects your engine against all of them.

Helps prevent sludge from anti-freeze leaks

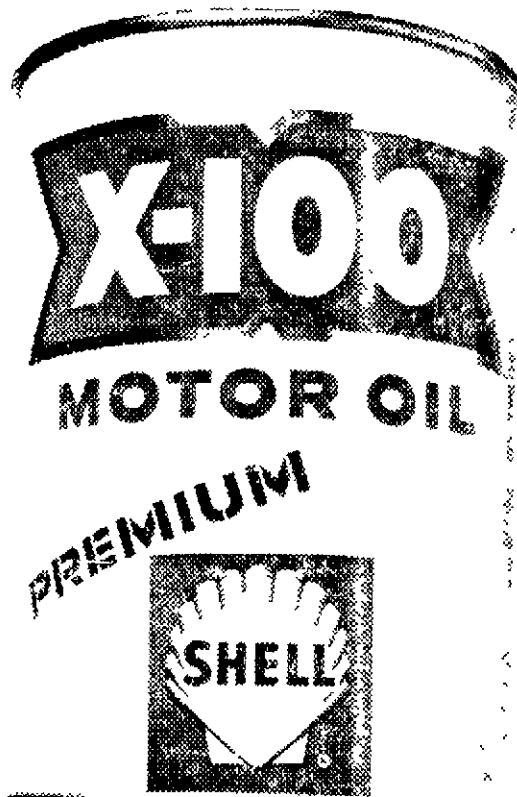

Remember this when you fill up with anti-freeze this fall: Anti-freeze can leak out of your cooling system into your crankcase.

Many oils can react chemically with permanent anti-freeze to form a horrible sludge—so sticky that it can bring an otherwise healthy engine to a standstill.

New Shell X-100 Premium resists reaction with any sort of anti-freeze. It shrugs it off. This new oil formula puts to rest fears of hidden anti-freeze leaks.

Disarms crankcase dirt

All engines accumulate crankcase dirt. The problem is to stop the many different kinds of dirt particles from ganging up and forming sticky sludge, which can clog your engine.

This is Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil. Look for the white can with the red letters.

Most premium oils use a detergent additive to do the job. But the majority of these additives are metallic and cause that old devil—ash.

Shell's solution is to replace the detergent with a dispersant—a remarkable new ingredient called Alkaldine.*

Alkaldine works to disperse dirt particles—in effect, holds them apart—so that they don't form sticky sludge.

Alkaldine additive is potent stuff. After 1,200,000 miles of city driving, engines lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium were torn down and inspected. The amount of sludge was astonishingly low. In some cases there was so little it could hardly be measured.

Ignores temperature changes

Many motor oils tend to become too thick when cold and too thin when hot. This is hard on your engine—and it can be especially troublesome during sudden autumn cold snaps.

New Shell X-100 Premium is an all-year oil. Here's how it works. Alkaldine has a molecular structure that resembles a basket of eels.

When the oil is cold, Alkaldine's eel-like molecules curl up as if for comfort. In effect, they take up less space in the oil—and the oil flows freely through the tightest bearing.

When the oil is hot, the molecules uncurl, take up more room—and the oil resists thinning.

New X-100 Premium lubricates just as effectively in June as it does in January.

Fights engine acid a new way

All automobile engines manufacture acid. It can cause far more wear than friction. It can attack engine parts much the way that stomach acid causes ulcers.

Most motor oils combat this engine acid with alkaline additives. But the neutralizing effect of the oil gets weaker as engine acid eats up the alkalinity—until eventually such an additive stops working altogether.

Shell X-100 Premium doesn't depend on alkalinity. It actually plates all engine surfaces with a thin chemical film. The metal adsorbs some of the oil's protective qualities. Chemists call this phenomenon "chemisorption."

The process of "chemisorption" offers unique long-lasting protection against acid attack.

How much does it cost?

If you now use a premium motor oil, you'll get Shell X-100 Premium for about the same price.

If you're now making do with ordinary motor oil, you'll pay about $3.60 a year more—less than a penny a day extra—assuming you drive at about the national average of 10,000 miles a year, and get regular oil changes.

Quite a bargain for the one motor oil that fights additive ash and four other troubles to help prolong the life of your engine.

At Shell, 1997 scientists are working to make your car go better and better

Gruelling road tests. Shell piled up 5½ million miles testing X-100 Premium. Sample results: sludge reduced by half, engine wear amazingly slight.

Budget Approved By Library Board

$189,867 Asked for 1962; Request For Bookmobile Included Again

The Appleton Board of Library Trustees Wednesday approved a 1962 budget of $189,867 to be presented to the city council budget committee in October. The total includes $148,900 for the basic budget and an additional request of $40,967 for purchase and four-month operation of a bookmobile. Excluding the bookmobile request, this is a 12.9 per cent increase over the 1961 budget of $131,960. The library expects an income of $7,000 in fines and fees in 1962. The Outagamie County contribution for library service to its residents, if it increases by the same percentage over 1961, would total $7,112. Therefore, the total budget burden for Appleton, including the bookmobile, would be $175,755. All but the $7,000 in income from fees and fines and the county contribution would come from city property taxes. The budget would require about $1.25 on the 1962 Appleton tax rate, about 11 cents more than this year.

Members of 32nd Will Pay Sales, Income Taxes

MADISON (AP)—Members of the 32nd National Guard Division will pay a sales tax while stationed in the state of Washington and they'll continue paying Wisconsin income taxes. When they report for active duty at Ft. Lewis Oct. 29, the men of the Red Arrow Division will have to pay a 4 per cent general sales tax on all items purchased off the base. The tax does not apply on items bought at post exchanges. Although Washington has no income tax, Wisconsin guardsmen will keep on paying Wisconsin levies on earnings in excess of $1,000 a year received for armed forces duty. Wisconsin law for exempts income taxes for state residents on the first $1,000 of military pay. The division will go on full military pay Oct. 15 at home stations.

Three Counties Form Common School District at Wrightstown

Only One Objection; Enrollment Will Jump To 275 Next Year

WRIGHTSTOWN — Only one person objected as the school committees of Brown, Outagamie and Calumet counties voted to dissolve the Wrightstown High School and 10 surrounding grade school districts Tuesday. In their place was created a common school district for kindergarten through grade 12 which will operate as a single unit with one school board, to become effective June 28, 1962. The vote will give the Wrightstown area enough tax base and student population to become an effective unit offering all of the courses required by the State Department of Public Instruction the reaction from a Town of Hol. Enrollment at the school will land resident. "Together we will jump from 184 this year to over have enough tax base and enough 275 next fall and the tax base students to have a real good will be increased from $4 million school" to over $17 million. Although a capacity crowd at- tended the public hearing in Wrightstown's small gymnasium, the event was conducted in a better ourselves in Wrightstown what is best for our children and not have to take what we get in the city systems." Speaking against the move was a farmer who favored joining the Kaukauna district and a group along Highway Z o nthe south- eastern corner of the new district who favored going to Brillion. Harry Weaver, president of the Brillion School Board, said that the area along Z was now being served by Brillion and that they, too, need all the students and tax base they can get. "Making Wrightstown bigger and Brillion smaller isn't solving anything," he said. Although the final vote to form the new district was done without

City Workers Pay Increase Recommended

3 Per Cent Hike Is Proposed by Works Board at Kaukauna

KAUKAUNA — The board of public works is recommending to the council a 3 per cent across-the-board pay hike for union city employees. Salaries of other city employees have not yet been considered. The board's recommendation gave no indication when the rate hike would become effective. The local had asked an increase of 12 cents per hour across the board or about twice the board's recommendation. A request from the local for four weeks vacation with pay after 20 years service was denied. It was pointed out, no union employee will have 20 years service for a few years. Back to Board Requests for wage adjustments for the city mechanic and the relief man who replaces the superintendent of the sewage plant during periods of vacation or illness were referred back to the board for further study. The board will also recommend an increase in assessment for weed cutting, effective Jan. 1, 1962. If approved by the council, the new rate will be $10 per hour for man and equipment with a minimum charge of $5 and $2.50 per hour for hand labor. # No Citizens Show, but Officials Discuss New High School Anyway

Possibility of New Catholic Institution Won't Stop Addition

KAUKAUNA — A meeting designed to acquaint the general public and council members with the proposed $1,400,000 addition to Kaukauna High School resulted in the appearance of no citizens. But the hosts, all members of the school board, pointed to the school census reports and the rapid growth of the area as points which must be considered in construction of a new high school. He said the area Catholic high school to serve the new addition is being planned on Little Chute and Freedom. Its location was explored about 1971.

When it was all over, Mayor Favergeon thanked both boards and council members for showing an interest in the problem. But he felt disappointed by the lack of interest by citizens, who will be paying the load for improvements to the present high of the existing athletic field, it was brought out the city should provide a suitable athletic field of schools, admitted he had heard and rent it back to the school about the possibility of a parochial school sometime within the next six years, but felt this would not affect the high school enrollment sufficiently to give up on construction plans.

Appleton Law to be Changed

Health Board Asks Grade A Code for Cottage Cheese

To promote higher health standards in Appleton, the board of health is recommending an amendment to the city's Grade A milk ordinance so that it includes cottage cheese.

Nelson Signs Measure on Jobs Equality

Urges Education Of Employers Before Enforcement

MADISON (AP)—A bill to prohibit job discrimination against women was signed by Gov. Gaylord Nelson Wednesday. The governor said he has asked the State Industrial Commission to educate employers to the act before enforcing it.

“While I favor equal job opportunities for men and women with similar qualifications, I believe there are situations in which an employer may have valid reasons to hire only men or women,” he said.

The governor stated he would support a change in the law to define discrimination under terms of the act.

Also signed was a bill permitting the state to contract with the Milwaukee Public Library to furnish services to blind persons in Wisconsin.

Recordings for Blind — Under the act the library will send recordings and other ma-

Materials furnished free by the library of Congress to local libraries for distribution to the blind.

Estimated cost for the state is $45,000 in the biennium. The Chicago Public Library previously furnished the service at no cost to Wisconsin residents but the program was discontinued a year ago. The state Welfare Department estimated that more than 1,500 Wisconsin blind persons use the service.

Another approved bill authorizes creation of a fourth branch of the Rock County Court. It will be in Beloit.

A bill affecting the condemnation procedure used by redevelopment authorities also was signed. It requires an authority to negotiate for acquisition of property before exercising power of eminent domain and sets up machinery for court appeals.

Three Camps May be Ready For Use by '63

State Director Hopes To Have Two Done By Next Summer

MADISON (AP)—State Welfare Director Wilbur Schmidt said Wednesday his department hopes to have three youth conservation camps ready for use in 1963. The camps are part of the state's $50 million resources development program approved by the Legislature this year. The law provides that the camps be located in Interstate State Park near St. Croix Falls, in the Rhineland area and in the southern section of Kettle Moraine State Forest.

Schmidt told the State Board of Public Welfare Wednesday that while the law requires that the Interstate Park Camp be built this year, that is virtually impossible because of late passage of the bill. He said the department hopes to catch up by completing two camps next year and the third the following year.

Under plans outlined by Schmidt each camp would house 100 youths, from 16 to 19 years of age, for a 12-week summer period. The youths would get room and board, valued at $45 a week, and $18 in cash weekly.

The board was told that the prime purpose of the camps is to give idle youths something to do, not to provide services for juvenile delinquents.

Schmidt also said that consideration is being given to stays of six-weeks each, which would mean that 200 youths could use each camp during the summer. Board members asked a study of possibly using the camps all year and extending their use to even more youths.

Menasha Will Issue License To Beer Bar

No Legal Right for Denying Permit of Former White Swan

MENASHA — The Town of Menasha board Wednesday night voted to grant a beer license to Joel King, who will reopen the former White Swan beer bar on State 114 King plans to change the name to the Pied Piper.

Amos Page, town chairman, said the board was advised by its attorney that it had no legal reason to avoid granting the license since the property previously had been used for a beer bar. If the board did not grant such a license, it was likely the court might order the license issued, the board was advised.

Page said board members had no other alternative even though they might not be in favor of a beer bar.

4 Persons Killed In Accidents on State Highways

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic crashes in Wisconsin Wednesday took the lives of four persons, including a man and a woman killed in a head-on collision in Rock County. The deaths raised the state's toll for the year to 645, compared with 610 a year ago today.

Two cars collided on Highway 51 midway between Beloit and Janesville Wednesday, killing John Patz, 46, of South Beloit, Ill., and Mrs. Helen Osborne, 37, of rural Beloit, the mother of two small children.

One of the cars was driven by Patz, whose wife, Ruth, 51, was reported in critical condition at a Beloit hospital. She suffered fractures of both arms and one leg. The other car was driven by Mrs. Osborne's husband, Lyle, 53, who also was in serious condition in the court through his attorney that he plans to appeal the case to Circuit Court.

Two Guilty of Tipsy Driving

Both Arrested In Appleton; Plan To Appeal Cases

Municipal Judge Gustave J. Keller Wednesday found two Appleton drivers guilty of drunken driving.

William M. Schumacher, 50, route 4, Appleton, forfeited $125 when he failed to appear on the charge. He was arrested Sept. 15 at Wisconsin Avenue and Richmond Street after a citizen called police when Schumacher was seen getting into his car and driving away erratically. Schumacher tested .24 on the drunkometer. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication.

Schumacher will lose the right to drive for a year. He has told also was in serious condition in the court through his attorney that he plans to appeal the case to Circuit Court.

David J. Murphy, 28, 410 E. North St., was found guilty of drunken driving and fined $150. He was arrested in the 800 block of N. Richmond Street at 2:03 a.m. July 15 after police saw him speed, drive erratically and make an illegal turn.

Murphy refused the drunkometer test. He also cannot drive for a year. Murphy also has filed papers appealing the case to Circuit Court.

any strings attached. Frank Michels, Luxemburg, and a member of the Brown County committee, stated earlier that in isolated cases where undue hardships were involved, the persons should be allowed to petition out of the district at a later date.

During the hearing George Cudnowsky, municipal of the Wrightstown district, read a report from a state survey which indicated that the proposed district would have a large enough enrollment to offer courses in art, physical education and music to the grade schools, more advanced training for the high school students and kindergarten classes.

Although it was pointed out at the meeting that a new building would have to be built, those favoring the merger were quick to add that the new district could do exactly as it desired with all of the people having a voice in the decision.

Besides the Wrightstown high school and village grade school the district involves the schools of Askaton, East Holland, Greenleaf, Ledgeville, Brieg and Little Rapids, all in Brown County. ## Future of Sunny View Discussed at Meeting Of Institution Group OSHKOSH — The future of Sunny View Sanatorium was discussed Thursday by the Winnebago County Board institutions committee and members of the county welfare department. The sanatorium is run jointly by Winnebago and Fond du Lac counties.

Fond du Lac County has proposed the sanatorium be converted from a tuberculosis hospital into a county general hospital for the chronically ill.

The institutions committee this morning discussed the cost of converting Sunny View to a general hospital and also discussed TB care in Winnebago and finding other facilities for TB cases.

Committeemen also attempted to evaluate the future needs for county home care. No decisions were made.

Pressure in Laos, South Vietnam Strong Indication Communists are on Offensive

WASHINGTON — The shortest, least noticed, least grandiose phrase passage of the president's speech in the Vinh.

Alsop

If the meeting of the U.N. General Assembly had opened only a few weeks earlier, these paragraphs would surely have been omitted. In July and August, too, the government of South Vietnam's courageous President Ngo Dinh Diem was making good progress against the Communist guerrilla forces which are supplied and directed from North Vietnam, are largely manned by North Vietnamese Communist infiltrators. In recent weeks, however, there have been three battles of an altogether new kind, one near Kontum, three or four regular regiments, or upwards of 4,000 men. Infiltration of more and more such troops through Laos is also continuing.

The numbers cited may not sound enormous. But remember that the defending army is trimmed down, all over the country, by local guerrilla action and threats. Great havoc can therefore be wreaked by relatively small but fully armed and regularly organized hostile forces. Every major French defeat in Indochina was caused by precisely this Communist tactic, or surprise injection of regular forces to add to the strain of the counter-guerrilla efforts.

What has happened means, in Vietnam, the Communist North Vietnamese assault on South Vietnam has passed into a quite new phase. The ludicrously unreal Washington argument, about whether this assault on South Vietnam should or should not be described as "aggression," is now more unreal than ever. Aggression is plainly taking place, and on a rather major scale.

There are plain signs, too, that this aggression is part of a much larger plan. The melancholy situation in Laos is indicative in this respect. Much more indicative, however, is the heavy build-up of Chinese Communist forces on the heavily forested island of Hainan. On Hainan, the Chinese Communists constitute a threat on the flank to anyone seeking to teach a sharp and well-served lesson to the North Vietnamese Communists.

Add to this picture of more and more open aggression in southeast Asia, the extraordinary Soviet threats to Iran. The British Foreign Office regards these threats as indications of a coming attack, by overt or covert means, on this key country of the Middle East. Even at the more complacent State Department, concern about Iran is now rising.

The sum of the addition, plus the Berlin crisis, is a three-pronged Communist offensive. The triple attack is all the more disturbing because the Berlin prong has been so wholly absorbing the attention of the president and other Western leaders.

Very nearly as much can be lost by a Communist take-over in Iran or in South Vietnam as would be lost by a Western surrender to Communist pressure at Berlin. In Iran, the Middle East is at stake.

Nelson Favors Two Party Vice Chairmen

MADISON (AP)—Gov. Gaylord Nelson today proposed that the state Democratic party change its constitution and elect two vice chairmen.

The proposal was an obvious move to place in one of the posts Sen. Lynn Stalbaum of Racine. Stalbaum had been teamed with Assemblyman Frank Nikolay of Abbotsford in a Nelson-supported bid to unseat the present party vice chairman responsible in the administration of Patrick Lucey of Madison.

Nikolay, a major in the 32nd division, was forced to withdraw as a candidate for Lucey's post of chairman when the division was called to federal service. Nelson then asked Stalbaum to move up from a candidate for vice chairman and take on Lucey for the top post. But Stalbaum declined.

Lucey's choice for vice chairman is Mrs. Marian McBride of Wauwatosa. The party will elect new officers in its state convention Oct. 13-15 in Eau Claire.

In a letter to Milton Schneider of Wisconsin Rapids, constitutional committee chairman of the convention, the governor asked consideration of a party constitution amendment that would create posts for two vice chairmen. "I am inclined to the view that it would be valuable to have one bid to unseat the present party vice chairman responsible in the administration of Patrick Lucey of Madison."

The governor added that Lucey "joins me in this request." Lucey and the governor made their peace after Nikolay was forced out of the chairmanship by race, but Nelson is known to have insisted that his office, heretofore, have a bigger voice in directing party policy. As a two-candidate to help dictate Democratic policy, Stalbaum is regarded by Nelson as the logical man.

Devisor of Passport for Post-War Stateless Earns Sokolsky's Praise

BY GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — It is not unusual that a passport is named after a man, but after World War I, when large numbers found themselves homeless and helpless, a technique was evolved to give the stateless a document equivalent to a passport and generally recognized. That was the Nansen Passport, named after Fridtjof Nansen whose 100th anniversary will be celebrated on October 10.

Sokolsky

Too few have recognized that perhaps the most frightful result of war is statelessness which to many means homelessness. Millions have been burned to the ground; homes now-a-days call refugees to some place where they could live nor all documents are lost. There is mal lives, look after their families. What does one do? lies, earn a living by their labor. Where does he live? Where does and forget the tragic years which he go? Where are his relatives uprooted them.

To this problem, Fridtjof Nansen appointed High Commissioner for Refugees of the League of Nations. He knew no nationalities, no explorer. He was the first man distinctions between man and to cross Greenland. In 1896, man. He only knew that human aboard a small ship, the Fram, he being were struggling to survive as persons and that it was his task to help them. The Nansen Passport was accepted by more than 50 governments and many distinguished persons had no other document.

Nansen's professions were oceanography and diplomacy. He was the Norwegian Minister to Great Britain and then led a diplomatic mission to the United States. From 1920 until his death, he represented Norway at the League of Nations. It was during those years, he devoted himself to the stateless.

War to Nansen was a human, not a military problem, and it dealt with individual human beings whose lives were suddenly dislocated and disturbed. As Herbert Hoover was concerned with the refugee problem is still with us. All over the world there are refugees from war and revolution and their numbers increase.

The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees has taken on Nansen's noble work. Such countries as Australia and Canada, which need population, open their doors to refugees from all European countries, but we shall soon have a problem of African refugees which will not be so readily solvable.

The 100th anniversary of Nansen's birth to be celebrated on Oct. 10 is a good date to give thought to this problem of man's inhumanity to man. It is a time to think this problem out.

War does not only destroy; it like Armenians, who are wiped a pauper or a millionaire, these cripples; it leaves men and women out in large numbers by each are the ultimate requirements of en helpless. Its greatest cost is conqueror, perhaps because they life. Beyond these there are only homelessness and it is that problem on the highroads of an em-degrees of advantage. ## Park Sticker Needed, State Official Claims

Now! Higher Protein for Better Bread... With New Gold Medal Flour... So Uniform, So Tolerant You Make Bread Without Sifting!

EASY YEAST RECIPES ON BACK

Start with This White Bread Recipe:

2 pkg. Fleischmann's active dry yeast
1 1/2 cup warm water (not hot)
3 1/2 cups lukewarm milk, scalded then cooled

12 to 12 1/2 cups unsifted* GOLD MEDAL Better-for-Bread Flour
1/4 cup sugar
2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup soft shortening

*To measure flour, dip nested, dry measuring cups into flour, level off with straightened spatula.

In mixing bowl, dissolve yeast in water. Add milk, half the flour, sugar, salt and shortening. Beat with spoon until smooth and batter falls from spoon in "sheets." Using your hand, mix in enough of the remaining flour until dough cleans the bowl. Turn out onto lightly floured board. Cover and let rest 10 to 15 min. Knead until smooth and blistered, about 10 min. Let rise in warm place (85°) until double in bulk, about 1 hr. (If kitchen is cool, place dough on rack over bowl of hot water and cover completely with a towel.) Punch down, cover and let rise again until almost double in bulk, about 30 min. Divide into three parts. Round up and let rest 10 to 15 min. Shape into loaves. Place in 3 greased loaf pans, 9x5x3", sealed edge down. Grease top of loaf. Cover with cloth; let rise until light (about 1 hr.). Test gently with finger. A slight dent that stays shows loaves are ready to bake. Place pans on center rack of hot oven (425°) not touching each other or sides of oven. Bake 25 to 30 min. To test loaf, tap crust—it will sound hollow. Immediately remove bread from pans. Place on wire cooling racks or across top edge of the bread pans. Do not place in direct draft.

Be sure to get Fleischmann's Yeast... the yeast that rises fast, keeps fresh for months on your shelf!

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. after glass of hot salt water all day. "Dear Doctor. Is salt good for day.—Mrs. E.T."

A person? My mother-in-law in Salt is essential. In varying amounts, it is present in most of the foods we eat. Generally we all use more salt that we need. The principal exception, of course, is when in hot weather hard exercise and heat combine to cause so much perspiration that the body loses too much salt.

In today's letter, however, I'd assume that mother-in-law has taken the doctor's advice (whatever it was) too seriously. Never-her late 70's says she to drink hot salt water. She drinks glasses of it all day, a teaspoon of salt or more in a glass. I've heard of drinking a glass of warm water after breakfast, but never glass

Park Shelter Bids Will be Re-Advertised

Council Committee at Kaukauna Changes Specifications

KAUKAUNA—Members of the health and recreation committee of the common council have decided to postpone building of a shelter at Riverside Park until 1962.

Earlier the common council awarded bids for the construction of a shelter to cost about $18,000. The city attorney ruled the bids were improper because separate bids were not asked on smaller contracts included in the general bid.

Upon learning they would re-advertise for bids, aldermen indicated some changes should be made in the proposed plan to help cut the cost of construction. Upon recommendation by the council, the health and recreation committee decided to eliminate the kitchen and fireplaces which were in the original plans.

Baisch and Associates, engineers for the project, are to make changes and bids will be advertised in February, 1962. Some fill on the site of the proposed shelter may be placed this fall to permit settling over the winter.

Money for a park shelter was included in the 1961 budget, but it was not sufficient to cover the contract price on original bids. This money will remain earmarked for the shelter and additional money set up in the 1962 budget to finance the improvement.

New Flight Schedule Approved by CAB for Clintonville Airport

Routing Includes Two Round Trips to Chicago, Early Plane

CLINTONVILLE — The Civil Aeronautics Board has authorized for area users. A person will be able to go to Chicago for the better part of a day and still return to Clintonville that same evening. Kuehl said earlier reports in various news media misrepresented CAB's authorization of this change by North Central Airlines, as it is not a "cut" in the service but a change in the flight pattern.

The proposed schedule for flights as of Oct. 29 would eliminate the stop at Green Bay on Flight 450. Instead, Flight 456 southbound would leave Clintonville Municipal Airport at 7:41 a.m., stop at Appleton, arrive at Milwaukee at 8:46 a.m. and at Chicago at 9:36 a.m.

Flight 458 southbound would leave here at 4:05 p.m., stop at Green Bay and Manitowoc, and arrive at Milwaukee at 5:41 p.m., and at Chicago at 6:31 p.m.

Flight 451 northbound to Minneapolis would arrive in Clintonville at 12:23 p.m. from Chicago.

Flight 453 northbound would arrive in Clintonville at 10:34 p.m. and in Minneapolis at 12:39 a.m.

Kuehl emphasized that these tentative schedules include two round trips daily by North Central Airlines to Clintonville, the same number as at present, with the only change being in the flight pattern. The change, he

For 1962

Think Hard

By GEORGE ROMNEY, President, American Motors Corporation

In the 1962 car announcements there will be so many names, models and sizes, that people will be confused.

You will be asked to "think big, or think compact, or think small" as to the size or kind of car you really need. We recommend, instead, that you "Think Hard."

Think hard about the things you want most in your next car.

Then look hard.

Look for most value. There are more than 100 improvements in the 1962 Ramblers. See how many of these advances are missing in competitive cars.

With our workers as progress-sharing partners, you can expect superior craftsmanship in Ramblers. American Motors' company-wide objective is to make trouble-free Ramblers a symbol of American industrial integrity and honesty... to make Rambler quality superior to that of even far costlier cars built anywhere in the world.

To accomplish this, we are sharing our progress with customers. Because to continue our growth we know we have to give you an obviously better value in product and in price.

How can Rambler give you more than the "Big Two"? It's a matter of dollars and cents.

Every completely new car in the past three years including the Lincoln Continental and Thunderbird has copied Rambler's modern principle of Single-Unit construction.

To convert from old-fashioned separate body-and-frame production lines to single-unit production requires hundreds of millions of dollars for retooling.

Our modern production lines have already been fully paid for. Therefore, we can spend our money to bring you important new benefits and keep our prices low. The records show that our two major competitors have increased prices on their low priced standard models about 50% more than Rambler in the period from 1955 to 1961.

This is one way in which Rambler has been sharing progress with customers.

We must be offering an obviously better value, for in just 12 months, 278,494 owners—of all makes, in all price ranges—switched to Rambler.

Rambler owners—new and old—say they are going to buy Rambler again. In owner loyalty, Rambler continues its big lead over ALL makes of cars—DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN, REGARDLESS OF PRICE—according to a recent survey for a national magazine.

With Rambler-pioneered Single-Unit construction, Rambler owners can keep their cars longer with fewer worries about rattles, rust and cost.

Rambler is the only U.S. car with Deep-Dip rustproofing clear to the roof. The only car with Ceramic-Armored muffler and tailpipe. For the original buyer, it will be replaced free by a Rambler dealer if it ever rusts out (collision damage excepted).

For 1962, we have spend huge sums of money... largely for "under-the-skin" improvements which assure longer car life, greater safety, lower upkeep, more trouble-free, service-free driving; easier handling, better performance and superior comfort.

In the 1962 Ramblers you will find a Double-Safety Brake System, standard. It has a tandem master cylinder. One for front brakes. One for rear brakes. If one system is damaged, the other still works. (There are similar systems on Rolls-Royce, Jaguar and '62 Cadillac.) And self-adjusting brakes that compensate for brake lining wear are also standard.

You will find chassis lubrication on most models that lasts 33 times longer. Many parts are lubricated for life.

In all models, Dowgard Full-Fill Engine Coolant replaces both water and anti-freeze at low cost, and is good for 2 years.

There's much, much more—important improvements "under-the-skin" and in exterior and interior beauty.

October 6th is the 1962 Rambler announcement date. It is well worth waiting for. In the meantime send for a free booklet entitled, "What's New In Rambler For '62—And Why." Then "Think Hard." Rambler's better value can save you hundreds of dollars. Write to: Rambler Booklet, Dept. 2, Box 531, American Motors Sales Corp., Detroit 32, Michigan.

Bid to Force New Meeting Called Failure

Attempt Led by Gordon Bubolz Not Successful

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — A bid by a dissident group to have a special convention of the Lutheran Brotherhood, a multi-million dollar fraternal life insurance society, has failed, President Carl F. Gramrud said Wednesday.

This is the second effort in recent years by the group, which now includes Gordon A. Bubolz of Appleton, Wis., to upset the administration led by Gramrud. Previously Bubolz backed the administration.

Gramrud said requests from 645 delegates, a simple majority, would be needed to call a special meeting of the Minnesota-based society. Gramrud claimed anti-convention support from 688 delegates and said another 142 "informed us" that they decline to take sides.

"It is obvious to us," Gramrud said, "that efforts by this dissident group have failed."

The next convention is set for 1963.

The group sought the special meeting because of a change in rules which allows officers to continue to hold their positions past a previously established retirement age.

In 1959 an attempt was made to install Val Bjornsen, Minnesota state treasurer, to the post held by Gramrud. But the delegates supported the incumbent officers.

Higher Fees for Hotels, Cafes Get Nelson Approval

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — State license fees are increased for hotels and restaurants and lowered for some tourist rooming houses under was a bill appropriating $150,000 to the State Highway Commission for construction of institution

The fee changes, requested by the State Board of Health, become effective next July 1.

Annual fees for hotels of 30 rooms or less are raised from $5 to $10. Larger hotels will pay $20 instead of $10. Restaurant licenses are increased from $10 to $20, while the fee for tourist rooming houses is cut from $10 to $5.

The reduction in larger rooming house fees makes a $5 license standard for all such accommodations.

The governor vetoed a bill requiring candidates for public office to file complete financial statements on election contributions.

Nelson said the measure duplicated an earlier bill already signed into law.

Horning Ranks First Among NFL Scorers

Taylor, McGee Stand Third in Their Specialties

GREEN BAY (AP)—The Green Bay Packers' Paul Horning has taken up where he ended last season, continuing as the scoring leader in the National Football League.

Individual statistics were released by the league headquarters Wednesday as the Packers prepared for their third game of the 1961 season, the 85th clash with the Chicago Bears who will be here Sunday.

In two games, Horning has scored 25 points for a seven-point edge over his closest challenger, Lenny Moore of the Baltimore Colts.

Horning, who set a new NFL record last year with 176 points, scored the biggest part of his accumulation as the Packers defeated the San Francisco 49ers 30-10 last Sunday. He added a touchdown, three conversions and three field goals.

Other High Places

High places in the statistics were held by three other Packers, end Max McGee, quarterback Bart Starr and fullback Jim Taylor.

McGee is third among the pass receivers with 10 receptions for 179 yards. Ahead of him are Del Shofner of New York with 13 and Jim Phillips of Los Angeles with 11.

Taylor ranks third among the ground gainers with an average of 5.3 yards each of the 28 times he carried the ball. Taylor has ground out 148 yards, with his longest run 45.

The leader here is J. D. Smith of San Francisco with a 6.1 yard average and 195 yards on 32 carries. Cleveland's Jim Brown is second with 193 yards in 41 attempts for a .47 yard average.

Starr is fifth among the passers with 25 completions in 42 attempts for 334 yards and one touchdown. The Green Bay signal caller has gained an average of 7.95 yards per completion and has a completion average of 39.5 per cent.

Guessing Scoreboard

LAST WEEK				SEASON RECORD
Hits	Misses	Ties	Pct.	Hits	Misses	Ties	Pct.
22	5	1	81.5	34	8	2	80.1

The football season gets more exciting, and the pairings more perplexing. But, here we go again, trying to avoid being hit for the loss that's almost inevitable one of these times.

* * *

Packers over Bears — The Green Bay offensive unit, which has scored but 3 touchdowns in two games, is due to explode. Although the Bears will be striving to repeat last year's City Stadium win, they will be too vulnerable to the Starr-launched rockets and the Taylor-Horning sledgehammer blows.

Michigan State over Wisconsin — If Ron Miller has one of his best days, he could pass the Spartans dizzy. However, the likelihood is that the UW defense will "give" just a little more often than the Spartans' in a potentially high-scoring game. Much of the Badgers' advantage in opening one week earlier than MSU was lost in the goo of Camp Randall.

Lawrence over Knox — The Vikes' defense gives promise of being a good one, and their offense should be smoother and deadlier after an extra week of work.

Xavier over Marinette — The high-flying Hawks don't figure to encounter too much resistance in their final "tune-up" before the demanding St. John game.

Green Bay West over Appleton — The inexperienced Terrors will get better by the week, but the Wildcats have already attained menacing maturity and are on the prowl in the Valley again.

Neenah over Shawano — Like the "man bites dog" bit, the Indians will be the ones to lose their scalps.

Kaukauna over Kimberly — The defensively-powerful Ghosts should collect another link for their win chain.

St. John over Pennings — After their close call at Fond du Lac Springs, the Dutchmen will roll early and often.

St. Mary over Fondy Springs — This has the earmarks of a close one, but the Zephyrs' rebuilt team showed signs of clicking in the Lourdes victory.

New London over Menasha — Dave Emerich could be the difference in the struggle between two apparently evenly-matched clubs.

Two Rivers over Clintonville — The Raiders' speed looms as the deciding factor.

Midwest Conference — Carleton over Cornell, Grinnell over Monmouth, Ripon over Coe, St. Olaf over Beloit.

Fox Valley Conference — Oshkosh over South, East over North, Manitowoc over Fond du Lac.

Other Games — Premontre over Lourdes, Hortonville over Denmark, Wrightstown over Shiocton, Freedom over Reedsville, Winneconne over Omro, Weyauwega over Manawa, Bonduel over Marion, Wittenberg over Waupaca, Chilton over Plymouth, Brillion over Oostburg.

Badgers Seek to Sharpen Attack for Spartan Game

50,000 May Watch Duel Saturday

MADISON (AP)— Wisconsin's football weapons, somewhat tarnished in their initial showing, will be turned Saturday on the Spartans of Michigan State in the Big Ten's first conference game of the year.

The clash is expected to attract more than 50,000 to Madison's Camp Randall Stadium where last Saturday 36,000 rain-soaked partisans watched Wisconsin sputter to a 7-0 victory over Utah.

Wisconsin's heralded passing game never did get fully off the ground in that one. And the Badger backfield—touted as much faster than last year—did more slipping than sprinting with the ball.

Good Deal Better

"We'll have to do a good deal better Saturday," said Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn in looking ahead to the Big Ten opener. "Michigan State has tremendous speed and though I don't know how much passing they'll do, we'll have to get ready for that too."

Bruhn figures he has one thing going for him this weekend and that is MSU's lack of previous competition.

"It always helps to get over the first bit of body contact against somebody else," Bruhn said. In Wisconsin's case, the contest was all beneficial, and devoid of the squad injuries that often accompany openers.

Holding Utah scoreless—something that hadn't happened to the Utes in 24 games—put Bruhn's defensive worries to rest for a time at least.

"But we'll have to do a lot of sharpening on our offense," he said. "Against Utah, it was a combination of bad blocking and missed assignments that made our running game so inconsistent. On the passing side, we'll let's say I've seen (Ron) Miller have better days."

Miller, a surprise find in Bruhn's search for a quarterback, didn't resemble the player who last season led the conference in left 13 years ago, is at Oshkosh passing and total offense. But he Lourdes for an afternoon affair remains the hub of Wisconsin's while St. John, given more troupro-type passing attack and, with such sticky-fingered ends as Pat Richter and Ron Staley as receivers, the major threat to the visiting Spartans.

Outside speed, a recently rare commodity in Wisconsin football, is expected to be supplied Saturday by sophomore halfbacks Louis Holland and Jim Nettles, and veteran Merritt Norvell.

Senior Neil Fleming and sophomore Jim Purnell, who won the highest individual praise last Saturday from Bruhn, will share the fullback assignment.

Wisconsin faces MSU in this eleventh meeting of the two schools with its lightest line in years. It averages 212 pounds.

"But our overall speed is better than we had on our 1959 championship team and we're a much improved club over last season," said Bruhn.

MENASHA — Last week's four Fox Valley Catholic Conference victors meet the winless clubs in Saturday action and, unless there is a startling reversal of form, at least three should protect their perfect records.

Defending champion St. Mary bids for its sixth straight league verdict in a Saturday night affair at Fond du Lac Springs. Of the four tangles docketed Saturday, this is the only one that could be considered close.

Xavier, extremely impressive in its FVCC debut, goes to Marinette Catholic for another night game.

Premontre, which returned to didn't resemble the player who last season led the conference in left 13 years ago, is at Oshkosh passing and total offense. But he Lourdes for an afternoon affair remains the hub of Wisconsin's while St. John, given more troupro-type passing attack and, with such sticky-fingered ends as Pat Richter and Ron Staley as receivers, the major threat to the visiting Spartans.

Outside speed, a recently rare commodity in Wisconsin football, is expected to be supplied Saturday by sophomore halfbacks Louis Holland and Jim Nettles, and veteran Merritt Norvell.

Senior Neil Fleming and sophomore Jim Purnell, who won the highest individual praise last Saturday from Bruhn, will share the fullback assignment.

Norvell Hurt But Will Face MSU

MADISON (AP) — The University of Wisconsin first string right halfback, Merritt Norvell, was hurt Wednesday in a freak accident but he is expected to play Saturday as the Badgers open their Big Ten football campaign against Michigan State.

During a running drill, a stray cleat cut Norvell over the right eye and three stitches were required to close the wound.

A doubtful starter against the Spartans is Co-Capt. Don Schade, a guard, who has been sidelined by an ankle sprain. The Badgers' other guard, Steve Underwood, has been hampered by an infected foot but should be able to play.

Solves Problem

During drills Wednesday, Coach Milt Bruhn said he thinks he has solved one of the Badgers' problems in their 7-0 victory over Utah last Saturday.

Place kicking specialist Jim Bakken missed five field goal attempts, but Bruhn said it apparently wasn't Bakken's fault. "The ball wasn't held well for him on any of the attempts," Bruhn said.

Against Michigan State the ball will be held for Bakken by halfbacks Jim Nettles and Louis Holland, instead of quarterback Ron Miller.

Oshkosh '11' Will Play WSCC Tilt At La Crosse

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Saturday night could bring the hour of decision in the State College Conference football race as Oshkosh '11' defend champion Whitewater clashes with Stevens Point, currently on top of the heap with a pair of victories.

Last weekend Whitewater opened defense of its title by using all 60 players on the squad in blasting Platteville 38-0. The undefeated Pointers, who will be playing on their home grounds, won their second league game and third of the season by rolling over Oshkosh 33-6.

Other league games find winless Oshkosh at La Crosse which posted a victory in its single conference start; Eau Claire, 1 and 1, at River Falls, winner of its opener, and Platteville will be host to Wisconsin-Milwaukee, also defeated in its only league game.

Moon and Snider Will be Back With Dodgers in 1962

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Although the Los Angeles Dodgers' draft expendables for the National League expansion won't be known until after the World Series, Wally Moon and Duke Snider are not among them.

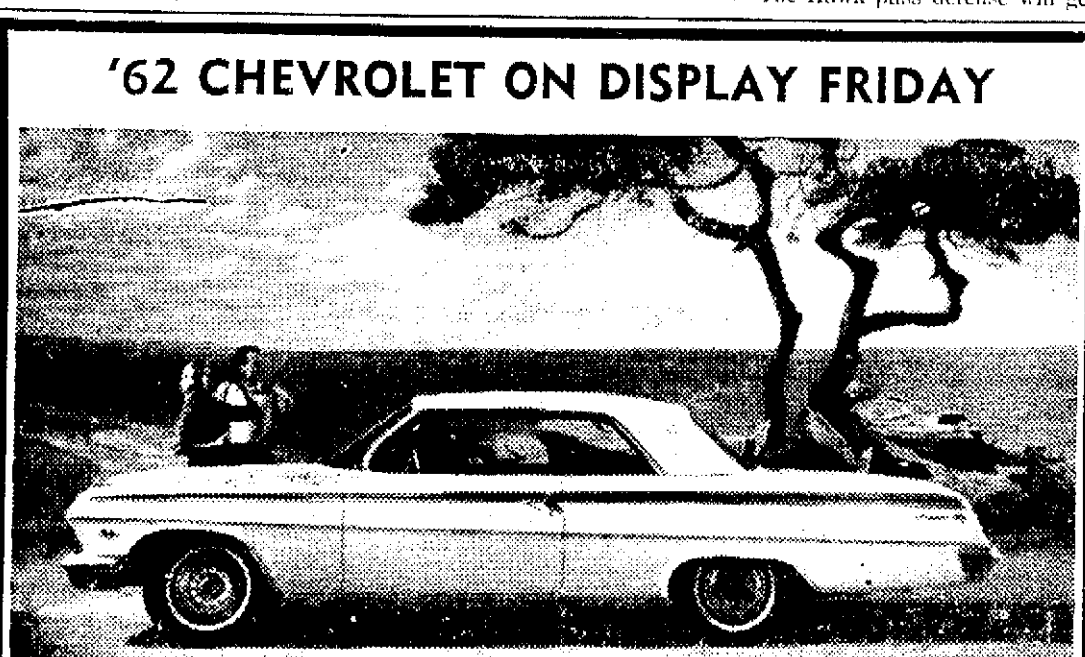

Dodger General Manager Buzzie Bavasi says the two veteran outfielders will be back in 1962. There had been rumors that Moon and Snider would be put up for bids of $125,000 each.

Bavasi said the Dodgers have come to no decision about whether Manager Walter Alston is to be rehired for 1962.

Yankees Given Mound Edge Over Redlegs on Basis of Experience

Ford Holds Record For Series Starts And Strikeouts

BY BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Experience gives the New York Yankees the edge in pitching over the Cincinnati Reds.

No one has started more games in World Series history than Whitey Ford, the aaaa of the American League pennant winners. The brilliant left-hander has started 14, compiled a 7-4 mark and holds the record for most strikeouts with 63. He also is tied for most victories with Allie Reynolds and Red Ruffing.

Ralph Terry and Bill Stafford, who figure to draw the other starting assignments for New York, worked in last year's Series. Their performances were undistinguished. Terry lost two games, yielding the home run to Bill Mazeroski in the final game that gave Pittsburgh the title. Stafford pitched six innings with no decisions.

Series Experience
Luis Arroyo, Jim Coates and Bob Turley of the Yanks also have seen Series action.

On the other hand, none of the 10 Cincinnati pitchers eligible for the 1961 post-season championships starting in Yankee Stadium next Wednesday, has any Series experience.

The starting pitchers almost are certain to be Ford (25-4), Terry (15-3) and Stafford (13-9) for New York and Joey Jay (21-9), Jim O'Toole (18-9) and Bob Purkey (16-12) for the Reds.

None among these six has put together an imposing complete game record this year. Ford has started 38 times and gone to the distance only 11 occasions. Terry has started 26 and worked nine complete games. Stafford started 24 times and went all the way eight times. Jay started 33 with 14 complete games. O'Toole drew 34 starting assignments with 11 complete while Purkey started 33 and turned in 13 complete games.

The fact that all six have impressive won-loss records is a tribute to the teams' excellent relief pitchers—Arroyo (15-5) for the Yankees and Jim Brosnan (10-3) and Bill Henry (2-1) for the Reds. These three will be the late-inning relievers. Coates (11-5) and Bud Daley (11-17) for New York and Ken Johnson (6-2) and Jim Maloney (6-7) of Cincinnati are likely to get the call if the starting pitcher is knocked out of the box from the first through the sixth innings.

The other eligibles are Sherman Jones (1-1), Jay Hook (1-3) and Ken Hunt (9-10) for the Reds and Roland Sheldon (10-5), Hal Reniff (2-0), Truman Clevenger (3-2) and Al Downing (0-1) for the Yankees.

On a collective basis, the Reds' pitchers have 46 complete games, 12 shutouts, permitted 143 homers and a 3.78 earned run average. Yankee pitchers have totalled 47 complete games, 13 shutouts, 137 home runs off and a 3.51 ERA.

Prep Football Fatality Total Rises to 11

CHICAGO (AP) — The death of a 15-year-old Nappanee, Ind., high school football player Tuesday night brought to 11 the number of fatalities involving prep gridirers this season. Record for an entire season is 14.

However, the National Federation of High School Association officials said it has final reports on only eight of which four were attributed directly to injury.

A federation source said it has newspaper accounts only concerning three of the total of 11 fatalities, including the death of half-back Larry L. Slabaugh, 15, in a B game at Bremen, Ind., Tuesday night. A coroner attributed death to a brain injury.

The highest total of deaths for a single high school football season was 14, both in 1946 and 1957. Last year, the federation reported seven deaths attributable to football.

Buffalo Sweeps Junior Series From Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Off to a flashy start when the Little World Series was begun 57 years ago, Buffalo won two straight. It wasn't until this year that the Bisons again had the title in their grasp.

Five times since that 1904 inaugural of the minor league world series Buffalo has knocked the Yankees out of the door, but this year the Bisons finally made it with a four-game sweep over Louisville. An added slap by the International League representatives came when Buffalo's rookie right-hander Paul Brown allowed Louisville only one scratchy hit in a 4-0 shutout Wednesday night and took the title.

Favor Yanks, 11-5, In Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The New York Yankees were 11-5 favorites Wednesday to defeat the Cincinnati Reds in the World Series, but Las Vegas oddsmakers figured it won't be a walkaway.

They were offering 6-1 against the Yankees taking the Series in four straight.

New York was an 8-2-5 favorite to win the first game.

The World Series between the Yankees and the National League Wednesday's game between New champion Cincinnati Reds opens York and Baltimore caught every in New York next Wednesday, one by surprise, particularly since Oct. 4.

"He still felt tired this morning. The left-handed slugger had ing," said Hook, "and we agreed been contemplating such a move it would be best for him to sit as far back as Sept. 19. He even this game out. We had talked pinpointel a specific date, the about his taking a day off earlier game in which Steve Barber, a but I did not think it was wise southpaw who had stymied him at that time."

all season, was due to pitch for the Orioles against him in Baltimore. Rest Will Help

Asked if the move would jeopardize Maris' chances of becoming the first major leaguer to hit 61 home runs in a season, the former Army major said: "On the contrary, I think a rest will help his chances. I realize we are to reconsider and he finally have an off day tomorrow but one agreed to postpone his one-day day is not enough. I think he will respite until the day after he hit No. 60, if and when."

"I'm plain bushed," he explained. "I was so tired last night back slightly during batting practice I could hardly run. I told Ralph tice Tuesday night but minimized (Yankee Manager Ralph Houk) the injury."

Immediately after last night's game I wanted Wednesday off but nothing to do with my taking the he said to wait until this morning to see how I felt."

Also missing from the Yankee lineup was Mickey Mantle, the other half of the M and M slug-ging twins. The star center fielder, bothered by a virus condition for the past 10 days, was ordered to bed by the team physician.

Head-Knocking Game Expected By Van Brocklin

Declares Vikings
Will be Ready For Colts Sunday

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—"I expect a real old-fashioned head-knocking contest Sunday."

That was Coach Norm Van Brocklin speaking and he was referring to the coming weekend battle between his team—the Minnesota Vikings—and the Baltimore Colts.

"Baltimore can't afford to be down after last week's loss to Detroit and still expect to stay in the race," the freshman coach continued. "And our boys are high as a kite."

Van Brocklin said the team appears to be in good physical shape and "terrific mental condition" after its first loss last Sunday to Dallas.

"The boys weren't really ready to go last week," he explained. "But they're more than ready this week."

Only problem may concern halfback Hugh McElhenny, who played last Sunday's game with a broken toe suffered when he hit a bench in pre-game warmups. His starting status is doubtful and Van Brocklin said he may start rookie Tommy Mason instead.

"Our offensive line blocking was terrific last week," said Van Brocklin, "but our passing went to pot. We haven't been able to hit that happy medium yet. But maybe it will come this week."

Defensively, Van Brocklin said the Vikings have "a linebacker problem. We finally got Rip Hawkins to sharpen up on his passing defense, but he made a few mistakes on running plays from his middle linebacker spot."

The secondary is Van Brocklin's biggest headache. "We looked pretty bad last week on passes and this week we face probably the finest professional passing team. Only thing the Colts need offensively is a good left halfback."

Who will start at quarterback, a spot so aptly filled by rookie Fran Tarkenton in the National Football League opener but not so well taken care of last week, is still a question.

"And I don't think it makes much difference," Van Brocklin concluded, "as long as he can move the team."

School Workers Favor Combined Insurance Plan

The majority of school employees want to take a combined hospital, surgical and major medical insurance plan, according to a report read to the Board of Education Tuesday.

Response to a questionnaire distributed Sept. 1 shows that 70 do not want the combined plan, 70 do want it. Forty did not respond. Five wanted to exclude the major medical insurance, but this cannot be done under the present plan.

Votes from the Vocational and Adult School are not included.

Most of those who did not want the insurance, Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz said, had a husband or wife in the school system or were covered elsewhere by a family plan.

The board voted in August to pay part of cost of hospital, surgical and major medical insurance for school employees.

Family Puts in Lots Of Time at Mills

GREENWOOD, S. C. (AP) — The family of the late Mrs. J. A. Shannon, 79, who have worked a total of 234 years at the mills.

Their spans of service range from 25 to 39 years. The total does not include the 14 years Mrs. Shannon worked at the mills.

Most of those who did not want the insurance, Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz said, had a husband or wife in the school system or were covered elsewhere by a family plan.

Pipe Cleaners Become Flowers, Table Mats

BY CAPPY DICK

It's fun to make things from stores. A simple way to make pipe cleaner flowers is shown in Figures 1 and 2. Select one colored pipe cleaner to make the petals of a flower and bend it to the shape shown in "A" of Figure 1. Run a green pipe cleaner through the loops "B" of Figure 1 and pull it tightly to gather the petals as in Figure 2. Cut off a small piece of yellow cleaner and stick it into the center of the flower. Twist the green cleaner tightly around the base of the petals and loop the remainder of the stem to form a stem. When you have made three or four such flowers, each a different color, fasten them together in a small bouquet by twisting the stems together. Fine wire may be used in many variety and hobby stores.

Hammar skjold Carried Action for Peace Further Than Anyone Before

BY WALTER LIPPMANN

Over the years I have often wondered whether Dag Hammarskjold belonged to an age that is passing or to one that is being born. He was a bold innovator in world affairs, and he opened up a future, having carried further than it has ever been carried before the principle of international action to promote peace. Yet he was himself the fine flower of the European tradition of civility which, if it is not dying, certainly is not flourishing today.

He was altogether not the mass man of our times. He could be a very good friend, but there was a deep reserve in his character which few if any can have penetrated. In the great public world where the white lights blazed upon him, he lived an inner life of contemplation and esthetic experience that had nothing to do with power and popularity and publicity.

His diplomacy had a finesse and a courtliness in the great traditions of Europe. Never before, and perhaps never again, has any man used the intense art of diplomacy for such unconventional and such novel experiments.

The biggest experiment, for which in the end he gave his life, was to move the international society of the United Nations from having to choose between a very difficult police action in Korea and sole reliance on debate and verbal expression.

Executive Action

He moved the U. N. onto the plane of executive action without large-scale war as in Korea. This movement from words to deeds, from general resolutions to intervention, was best seen during the crisis at Suez, in Palestine, in Laos, and then in the enormous, the infinitely difficult and the infinitely dangerous crisis in the Congo.

If the United Nations now fails in what Hammarskjold inaugurated, the prospects are that the terrible racial struggle between Europeans and Africans will become deeply entangled in the conflict between the Western powers and the Communist powers of the Soviet Union and China.

It was to avert and to prevent this fatal entanglement that Hammarskjold dared to use the powers of the United Nations. The outcome is as yet unknown. But what we do know is that his unprecedented innovation in world affairs has run into fearful resistance both in the East and in the West.

Hammarskjold's use of the U. N. to isolate and disinfect the Congo crisis brought on him and the U. N. the implacable hatred of the Soviet government. At the same time Hammarskjold did not have the full support of the Western powers. In Algeria, in Katanga, in Angola, in Rhodesia, and in South Africa there is bitter resistance to the objectives of the United Nations in the Congo.

Protest Transition

Those objectives are to protect the transition from white supremacy, which cannot be continued much longer, to African self-government, for which the Africans are so unprepared.

There is no doubt that in the administration of the new U. N. policy there have been mistakes, errors of judgment and failures of the personnel. But let us keep in mind that the cause of the two-sided opposition to the U. N. action is not the mistakes, which are not irreparable.

The cause of the opposition from East and West is a determination not to have the U. N. succeed in what it is attempting to do. For if the U. N. succeeds, there will not be a Communist government in the Congo. That is what Khrushchev hates about civil servants who have their first allegiance to the laws, and not to their personal, their class, or even their national interests.

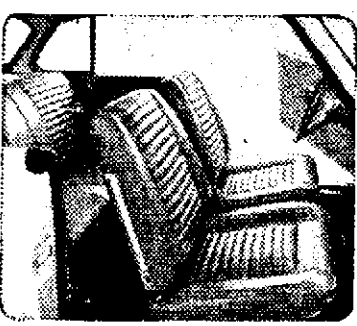

No such political ideal is believed to be possible or is regarded as tolerable in the Marxist world. The ideal is not very well understood in most of the rest of the world, and there is no use pretending that such public servants are not very rare indeed.

So there are times, as now in this hour of our grief and shock, when the ideal seems to belong to things that are passing away.
